$21 million development breaks ground

Demolition of a long vacant office building on Plymouth Road began last Wednesday, clearing the way for construction of a 93-unit luxury apartment development to be called Starkweather Lofts in Plymouth.

The vacant 20,000-square-foot Columbian Financial Group office building at 333 Plymouth Road is being leveled and the nearly 6-acre site prepared for construction of the first multi-family complex to be built in Plymouth in a decade.

Plans call for 40 one-bedroom loft apartments ranging from 708 to 850 square feet and 53 two-bedroom units ranging from 1,045 to 1,209 square feet. Rents are expected to range from $1,500 per month to $2,800 per month.

Starkweather Lofts is a partnership between DeVMar Development LLC, Burton-Katzman LLC, and P5 Investments — a $21.1 million loft apartment development that targets young professionals, empty-nesters and young couples by offering high quality new construction with high-end amenities such as 10-foot ceilings, granite countertops, stainless steel appliances, in-unit washers and dryers, balconies or patios, a community lounge, community park and pavilion with fire-pits and grilling stations, the developer said.

The recyclable materials from the site such as metal and concrete won't go to landfills, but to a recycling plant, a spokesperson said.

Located on the north side of Plymouth Road east of North Holbrook Street, the former office building had been used by the fire department for training exercises during the winter. The new complex will consist of two four-story apartment buildings and green space is an integral part of the development which calls for preservation of many large existing trees, planting new trees and construction of walking paths that link Old Village through Caster Park, explained Mark DeMaria, principal for DeVMar Development.

"Starkweather Lofts offer just the right combination of elements — solid urban loft design, upscale amenities, nearby parks and trails and a viable downtown with great restaurants and shops all within walking distance," said DeMaria.

"Demand for luxury apartment living is high right now in Plymouth and around the country," said DeMaria. "Young professionals and empty-nesters are looking for alternatives to the older apartment structures in Plymouth. They want new construction with high-end features," he said.

DeVMar Development was founded by Mark DeMaria in 2012. DeMaria, chosen by Crain's Detroit Business as one of its 40 Under 40, has 18 years experience in development and construction. His work has earned numerous awards, including two Excellence in Design "M Awards" from the Massey Institute of Michigan for the residential/multi-family projects he developed in Royal Oak and Ann Arbor.

Local communities named among safest

Safest also 'snobbiest'

In another recent survey, two of the safest cities were also rated as the "snobbiest."

While Northville came in first, Plymouth took third-place in a rating by the website www.roadsnacks.net.

Road Snacks previously put together lists ranking the Most Redneck, Most Boring, Worst Places to Find Love and many others. The purpose, according to the site, is "to create the most snarky of shareable information about places and cities across the country."

In determining that Northville is the snobbiest community in the state, followed by Plymouth, six criteria were analyzed explained Chris Kolmar who authored the list. He ranked 61 communities using the median home price, median household income, percentage of the population with a college degree, private schools per capita, theaters per capita and art galleries per capita.

Kolmar did say, however, "These aren't bad places to live, so don't get that idea."

Partnerships between law enforcement and residents, schools, and businesses help township police curb crime and quickly address community problems.

Population: 27,076
Violent Crimes per 1,000: 0.66
Property Crimes per 1,000: 10.93

Northville Township was rated number 45 on the list. Analysts said in their report, "Northville police establish community trust and partnerships through the accessibility of the Bicycle Patrol unit. And you might want to get stopped by these police officers. The Bicycle Patrol rewards safe behavior by handing out free ice cream vouchers to citizens caught wearing helmets when out on their own bikes."

Population: 28,734
Violent Crimes per 1,000: 0.62
Property Crimes per 1,000: 12.66

Canton Township was ranked at number 45 on the list. Analysts said, "Positive relationships with the community helped Canton Township police

The City of Plymouth and the townships of Plymouth, Northville and Canton are ranked among the safest communities in Michigan according to the 2015 Safest Cities in Michigan Report.

The SafeWise Report revealed the 50 safest communities in Michigan last week using the most recent FBI crime data from 2013 to analyze and rank communities which all have a minimum population of 5,000 people.

"Nearly half of these cities are making their second appearance on our list and 46 of them reported zero murders in 2013," Rebecca Edwards, SafeWise security analyst, said. "In a world full of violent headlines, it's encouraging to see that these Michigan neighbors really know how to look out for one another."

"To identify the 50 safest cities in Michigan, we started by looking at cities with a population of more than 5,000 residents in 2013, as well as those that did not make a complete crime report to the FBI. From there, we analyzed the most recent FBI Crime Report Statistics from 2013 for each city, including both property crime (arson, burglary, motor vehicle theft, larceny-theft) and violent crime (robbery, murder, aggravated assault, rape)," she said. "Then, to make everything equitable, we calculated the chance of these crimes occurring out of 1,000 people in each city," she added.

The City of Plymouth was ranked number 24 of 50. Analysts said: "Ranked one of the best suburbs in Michigan to raise a family, Plymouth is home to young families, good schools, and an excellent safety record. One way the Plymouth Police Department looks after its residents is by offering business and residential security surveys through their Crime Prevention Bureau. These diligent efforts helped limit violent crime to just 14 incidents in 2013, according to FBI data."

Population: 8,949
Violent Crimes per 1,000: 1.56
Property Crimes per 1,000: 9.94

Plymouth Township was the median community at number 25 on the 50 Safest Cities List. Analysts said: "A community-oriented policing philosophy helped Plymouth Township earn a spot on our list for the first time this year. Officers are assigned to specific neighborhoods to get to know the residents and become a regular fixture

City, township to combine senior services

"We are so lucky to have two great communities that put such a focus on senior services."

"This is an exciting opportunity for our community to improve the quality of life for all of our seniors, and begin to fully utilize the Friendship Station," said Plymouth Township Supervisor Shannon Smith. "This is just the beginning of reaching our goal to meet the needs of our seniors."

Although the Council on Aging offices will be moving to the township, there will still be programming in the Cultural Center, and seniors in both the city and township will be provided transportation if needed. Currently about 70 percent of the passengers on the senior buses reside in the city and 30 percent in the township, officials said.

"We have been pleased to assist the Council on Aging in the past and are thrilled to join in efforts to expand their efforts to help our seniors," added City Mayor Dan Dwyer. "Maintaining and improving the quality of life in our community has always been a priority, and this plan meets that goal."

"We are so lucky to have two great communities that put such a focus on senior services," said Bobbie Pummil, the passengers on the senior buses reside in the city and 30 percent in the township, officials said.

Taxpayer to wait 4 weeks for rebate

Don Howard
Staff Writer

Allegations that Plymouth Township Treasurer Ron Edwards withheld refund payments due a commercial taxpayer have been alleged following a meeting last Tuesday.

Principles from Viola Holdings, owners of VersaTrans, who claimed that Edwards withheld the final payments from the Wayne County Land Bank TURBO tax rebate program, said they have agreed to a four-week wait for payment after a meeting with township officials and representatives from Wayne County last Tuesday.

Jared Rodriguez, acting as a business consultant and spokesperson for Viola, said an agreement was reached during a meeting with Township Supervisor Shannon Price and Edwards, along with representatives from the Wayne County Treasurer's office. Rodriguez said county officials will wait an agreed upon four-weeks for a response from Wayne County after receiving a promise from county officials to investigate the delayed tax rebate.

"We had a good meeting...they did their due diligence and we're happy with the progress," said Rodriguez after the meeting.

In an Aug. 6 letter addressed to the entire township board, Rodriguez, representing Viola and VersaTrans, demanded immediate action regarding an overdue tax refund as well as the Wayne County Land Bank TURBO program. The estimated amount is $10,000.

It is the responsibility of the local municipal treasurer, in the case of Edwards, to send the collected tax revenue to Wayne County which then acts as an agent and mails the rebate to the qualifying Land Bank taxpayer. In his letter Rodriguez blamed Edwards and accused him of withholding the tax money that should have gone to the county.

Price mentioned the conflict between Viola and Edwards during the regular meeting of the board of trustees last Tuesday evening, explaining that despite the allegations by Viola officials, the problem was actually caused by the erroneous removal of VersaTrans from the TURBO program by someone in the office at Wayne County. "The county removed them from the Land Bank and therefore the township could not give them payment because they were no longer in the Land Bank," Price said.

"We had a good meeting...they did their due diligence and we're happy with the progress."

In order to fix the problem, the township has to send a letter to the Wayne County Treasurer asking him to re-instate the Viola properties into the Land Bank for 2013," Price said.

The letter detailing the situation and requesting that VersaTrans be reinstated in the Land Bank TURBO program was sent to the county offices from the township on Tuesday, Price said. He added that county officials have indicated that when the letter is received, the tax refund check will be cut within four weeks.

"There was great concern from the Board of Regents as to how the Land Bank was being handled once the executive session was shut down...like who was in charge, how it has been handled. When (Warren) Evans turned the Land Bank over to the Treasury Department, Ray Wojcik (Wayne County Treasurer) took over."

Rodriguez, who was not at the board meeting, said that VersaTrans had agreed to wait for the estimated four weeks for the long-overdue check.

"We have to take their word for the engagement over the past four weeks. We don't know the inner-workings of Wayne County nor Plymouth Township...This is a situation we've been working on for over a year. We expected to close this out—we expected our 2013 payment to come in 2014."

In his August letter, Rodriguez said Edwards' assistant told them that a check had been sent to the Wayne County Land Bank in April 2013. In his letter, he also complained of deceit and misinformation provided by Edwards. He maintains that the funds should have been sent to the county from the township.

"I don't know where the Edwards' check is at," he said. Speculation was that the ongoing dispute between VersaTrans and the township regarding the tax refund check may have been either the cause or effect of VersaTrans' refusal to donate funds to the township fireworks and picnic as they have in the past.

"I don't know why they didn't donate this year," Rodriguez said.

"Ultimately we just want to close this out. We've spent a great deal of time, energy and money to track this down. Its unfortunate it had to go to this."

"We're going to monitor the situation," he said.

Free movie night is offered in Plymouth

The Charter Township of Plymouth is teaming up with USA Hockey Arena to provide a free movie night at the arena Summer Drive-in, Monday, Aug. 31st. USA Hockey Arena will provide the first 300 residents of Plymouth Township and the City of Plymouth with a free car pass made available at township hall.

"We are thrilled to be able to host this back to school event for our residents," said Supervisor Shannon Price. "This project is just another example of the great corporate citizens we have in our community."

The evening will include a choice of three movies, popcorn, drink and entertainment prior to the movies. Gates will open at 7 p.m. and movies will start at dusk. The Township of Plymouth will have a Public Safety representative there with a police cruiser for photo opportunities, along with free FingerPrint America Child Identification kits. In addition there will be a Plymouth Township Fire Truck and staff available. The evening will include free face painting and raffles.

"This event promises to have something for everyone," added Clerk Nancy Conzelmann. "Whether you are young children who will enjoy the activities, or you simply want to enjoy a drive in movie on a summer evening, we have a fun-filled night planned for you."

"We are looking forward to hosting this event for local Plymouth families in cooperation with our sponsors."

Residents who would like to attend the Back-to-School Movie Palooza can pick up a voucher at the Plymouth Township Clerk's office. Each voucher will allow one car with as many people as one can fit into the movie of their choice. Residents will be required to show ID indicating they live in Plymouth Township or the City of Plymouth when picking up the voucher. There is a limit of one voucher per household.

"When Supervisor Price approached us with his idea for a back to school free movie, we were happy to work with the township to make this community event happen," said Denise Romagne, director of Corporate Sales and Marketing for USA Hockey Arena. "We are looking forward to hosting this event for local Plymouth families in coop-

The Charter Township of Plymouth and USA Hockey have secured sponsorship dollars to offset the cost of this event. All sponsorship money will be paid directly to USA Hockey Arena. Sponsors include: Coldwell Banker Preferred Realtors, Erin McKenzie and Andy Hargreaves; Lou LaRiche Chevrolet; 1-800 Storage; IBEX Insurance and Rizo Environmental Services.

Visit www.summerdrivein.com for a listing of the movies showing.

In case of rain, vouchers may be accepted on Sept. 1. USA Hockey Arena is located at 14000 Beck Road in Plymouth.

and programming at the Friendship station, our seniors can finally have a place to call home."

As part of the plan, the Plymouth Township Seniors Club will combine with the Council on Aging beginning Jan. 1, 2016 to form one senior organization. The club card games will be preserved with the new and expanded programming. "This project is a perfect example of our local leaders putting politics aside and doing the right thing for our community and residents," Price continued. "It has been a pleasure working with the mayor on this project, and I am confident we will be able to collaborate to improve our community."

The City of Plymouth and Plymouth Township will join the Council on Aging, Plymouth Community United Way, and the Wilcox Foundation have agreed to share in the purchase price of a new bus for Senior Transportation.

WAVE - WESTLAND

Foundation awards $12,000 in local scholarships

It was Christmas in July last month for several area students when the Westland Community Foundation announced the winners of $12,000 in scholarships.

During the annual fundraiser for the group, which took place at the new Westland City Hall this year, 12 local students accepted $1,000 scholarship checks from the foundation.

Winners this year, in alphabetical order, were:

Ashlee B. Alexander, a graduate of John Glenn High School who plans to attend Eastern Michigan University and pursue a career as a pediatrician. She was the class treasurer at William D. Ford Career Technical Center, K.O.M. mentor and volunteer and participant in the Teen Advisory Board at the William P. Faust Public Library.

Rya M. Bark, a Wayne Memorial High School graduate. She plans to attend Schoolcraft College and pursue a career in welding. She was an officer in the charity organization called J.O.E., including being president of the group.

Farhan T. Chaudhary, also a Wayne Memorial High School graduate. He will attend Eastern Michigan University to pursue a career as a physical therapist or wildlife biologist. He earned an Academic Letter and volunteered at the William P. Faust Public Library.

Frances C. Felix, who had perfect attendance at John Glenn High School, plans to attend the College for Creative Studies, hoping for a career in entertainment arts. She was a four-year Academic Award recipient and was inducted into the National Technical Honor Society.

Emanuel T. Hill II, a John Glenn High School senior, will study criminal justice with a minor in art at Schoolcraft College. A member of the National Technical Honor Society, he received an Academic Letter Award and was on the Honor Roll.

Madison M. Hill, who attended Livonia Franklin High School, will attend Cedarville University to study graphic design. An Honor Roll student, she was also Student of the Month and was a volunteer at the Rescue Mission. She distributed food for the homeless and has been on a missions trip.

Taylor S. Johnson, a graduate of Wayne Memorial High School, plans to attend Michigan State University to study neonatal medicine.

She led and directed her church children's choir, participated in orchestra and marching band and performed community service.

Vickie V. Le attended Churchill High School and will attend Schoolcraft College to be a physician's assistant. She was a member of French Honor Society and president of French Club. She also assembled gift baskets for the less fortunate and raised money for Saving the Children.

Keatani K. Sypher who attended John Glenn High School will study computer engineering at the University of Michigan-Dearborn. She was captain of the Robotics team and president of I-Save Team.

Brandon P. Testorelli attended Wayne Memorial High School and will study Auto Body Repair at the William D. Ford Career Technical Center. He achieved perfect attendance for two consecutive years in high school.

Shana Totten, a John Glenn High School graduate, plans to attend Lawrence Technological University to study robotic engineering with a minor in alternative energies. She received the Michigan Department of Education Breaking Traditions Award and was a member of the National Technical Honor Society. She also was captain of multiple facets of the Bionic Zebra's robotics team, volunteered at First Step, mentored a robotics team at Stevenson Middle School and started a robotics team at her high school.

Juan R. Wise II will attend Adrian College to pursue a career as an athletic trainer. He attended Wayne Memorial High School.

He hopes to play professionally in the NFL or NBA. He was president of the Wayne Memorial Gentlemen of Distinction, Varsity football captain and conducted a canned food drive for his church and Cleaners Food Bank.

The Westland Community Foundation comprises community and business leaders and the group has collected more than $1,125,000 to support the college scholarship program, donations of food, toys and winter coats to families in need, Salvation Army Summer Day Camp for children, Inspire Theatre group, Camp Liberty, Warm Hearts and many other Westland civic and altruistic programs.

Awards dinner planned for 'Diamond of Community'

A shining example of volunteer work and community activism will be honored by the Wayne Community on Aging Sept. 15.

Lois VanStipdonk has been selected to receive the 2015 Diamond of the Community Award in Wayne, honoring her for her history of community service.

The former Wayne librarian will be honored at a dinner at 6 p.m. Sept. 15 at the Wayne Community Center on Howe Road.

The 2015 Diamond of Community award was initiated in 1955 by the Wayne Commission on Aging in an effort to recognize the volunteer efforts of an individual older than 70 who continues to help make Wayne a Great Place to Live.

VanStipdonk's volunteer history includes her current term as President of both the Wayne Rotary and Wayne Garden Club. She is a member of the board of directors for the Friends of the Library, an active member of the Wayne Historical Commission, a member of Wayne Main Street and sings in the choir at St. Mary's of Wayne.

VanStipdonk also volunteers for the Wayne Westland Library Project.

Tickets for the Diamond of the Community award dinner are $15 and can be purchased at the Community Center until Wednesday, Sept. 9.

For more information, contact Nancy Wojewski-Noel, Senior Services supervisor at (734) 721-7400 x1312 during office hours from 9-3:30 a.m. until 3:30 p.m. Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. The Community Center is located at 4635 Howe Road in Wayne.

BELLEVILLE - INKSTER - ROMULUS

Romulus senior Health Fair set for Sept. 22

Hundreds of area residents are expected at the annual Health and Wellness Fair at the Romulus Senior Center planned for Sept. 22. The event targets senior citizens but is open to people of all ages from Romulus and surrounding communities.

The day-long event will feature resources and information from a variety of vendors including BCBS of Michigan, HAP, Senior Alliance, Corpore Sano, Belton Hearing Center, Romulus Athletic Center, the Lodge at Taylor, Regency Health Care, Health Quest and many more.

"We are happy to continue our Health Fair again this year and encourage all residents, not just our seniors, to maintain an active and healthy lifestyle," said Romulus Mayor LeRoy D. Buresoff.

Vaccinations for both the flu and shingles will be provided along with blood pressure checks, blood sugar screenings, raffles and prizes.

34th District Judge Tina Green gets her annual flu shot at the Senior Center Health Fair last year.

Drive for school supplies continues in area

The Salvation Army will continue to accept needed donations of school supplies this week at various locations in the area.

Laurie Aven, director of family and community ministries for The Salvation Army, said that Van Buren Schools Board of Education President Brent Mikulski had spearheaded the efforts and expressed her thanks to him.

"Knowing that the month of August is often the last hurrah for families before school starts, so we wanted to offer more opportunities for folks to participate in the collection of new school supplies," Aren said in a prepared statement.

Donations of new school supplies will be accepted the week of August 24-28 at: Van Buren Township Hall at 46425 Tyler Road; Belleville City Hall at 6 Main St. Photography by Shannon at 374 Main St.

Perspective Eyewear at 11824
Belleville Road; the Belleville
Chamber of Commerce at 248
Main St. and The Salvation Army at 9451 S. Main St. in Plymouth.

Since 2003 over 700 Van Buren Public School students have received new backpacks, school supplies and Payless gift cards ($25 value) so they can start the new school off in a positive way, Aren said.

"We need your help to continue this tradition. The Salvation Army pre-registers families with demonstrated need to receive these supplies. Any remaining supplies after distribution will be shared with the Van Buren Public Schools and Plymouth-Canton Community Schools for distribution where the need is the greatest," she added.

"Our K-12 students and teachers are most deserving of our communal support this coming school year. Together we can make that happen. Should you have any questions or concerns about this year's effort, please feel free to contact me at (734) 453-5954.

"If you know of a family that would benefit from this program, please refer them to our offices - we will be sure that they are given an appointment to receive assistance," Aren concluded.

Clothing giveaway planned

Middlebelt Baptist Church in Inkster is planning another clothing giveaway event from 9 a.m. until 2 p.m. on Saturday, Sept. 12.

The church will have clean, gently-used items of clothing for men, women and children that will be given away at no cost.

This month, a spokesperson said, the church will also have some household items that will also be available for those attending the giveaway event. The church usually hosts a clothing giveaway twice a year.

The clothing is donated by church members and collected from other benefactors, washed and mended in preparation for the giveaway, which often draws a large crowd.

The church is located at 943 Middlebelt Road in Inkster.

For more information about the clothing giveaway, call (734) 718-3838.

Library offers digital service

The Inkster Public Library is now offering Zinio for Libraries to library patrons. Through www.inksterlibrary.org, patrons will have unlimited multi-user access to complete digital magazines, easily viewed on most internet-enabled devices. This service is available to patrons with an active library card beginning with the 29003 prefix. Patrons can upgrade to the new card with the 29003 prefix at the Inkster Public Library for a $2 charge.

explained Sarah Marsack, youth services librarian.

She said the facility has some special events scheduled this month including LEGO Nights for children 10 and younger which take place from 4:30-5:30 every Tuesday.

The Leanna Hicks Public Library of Inkster is located at 2005 Inkster Road in Inkster.

Calendar of events

Final concert tonight

The Belleville Area Council for the Arts Music Lakeside series wraps up the 2015 season tonight with a performance by the Belleville Community Chorus as they celebrate their 10th year as well as an old fashioned ice cream social. The chorus is led by Director Sue Hiler, who has been at the helm since the inception a decade ago. The group will be presenting snippets from their spring concert Hokey for Hollywood as well as other pieces.

Audiences need to bring a lawn chair or blanket to Horton Park and early arrival is recommended.

The show begins at 7 p.m. and takes place rain or shine. In case of rain, the performance will be moved to The Belleville United Methodist Church across from the park on Roy's Street at Charles.

For more information about the Music Lakeside series or any of the other Belleville Area Council for the Arts upcoming events, visit bacaart.org.

City selling surplus equipment

The City of Westland will be offering surplus furniture and equipment during a sale beginning at 9 a.m. tomorrow, Aug. 28, in the west parking of the former city hall building, 36601 Ford Road and at the Bailey Recreation Center, behind the old city hall.

The sale will continue until 5 p.m. on Friday and will take place again from 9 a.m. until 4 p.m. Saturday, Aug. 29, at both locations.

A complete list of items for sale will be posted on the city website www.cityofwestland.com prior to the days of the sale.

As required under city codes, city employees and their family members are prohibited from purchasing any property. All sales are final and all items are sold "as is." Buyers may pay using cash, certified check or money order. The city will not accept payment by personal check or credit card.

Macy's helps library

Friends of the Romulus Library are joining with Macy's for a Shop for a Cause day Saturday, Aug. 29.

Shoppers can purchase a $5 coupon at the front desk of the library and can then save 25 percent on all purchases at Macy's all day. Some exceptions do apply.

Funds generated from the fundraiser will help pay for youth, teen and adult programming at the library.

Family Fun Festival planned

New Hope Family Fun Festival in support of Grief Awareness Day is planned from 4-8 p.m. Sunday, Aug. 30 at Mill Race Village in Northville.

Tickets are priced at $25 for adults, $10 for teens and those younger than 12 will be admitted at no cost. All proceeds will benefit New Hope Center for Grief Support.

The family event includes live music, games, a dunk tank, barbecue and candlelight memorial tribute during the evening. New Hope Center is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit dedicated to providing support, education and community to no cost to those who are grieving the loss of a loved one.

To purchase tickets or for more information, call (248) 343-0115 or visit www.newhopecenter.org.

Rouge-A-Palooza is topic

The Rouge River Cleanup and Rouge-A-Palooza will be topic of a talk by Kurt Kahan at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 1 at the Wayne Public Library.
