Charges filed in dog fighting ring

Three men from Inkster and Westland are facing drug and animal fighting charges follow-ing raids June 16 in both comnitios

According to police reports, Floyd Dontino Hampton, Michael Austin Boyd and Maurice Victor Pressley were all arrested during raids conducted by officers from Inkster and troopers from the Michigan State Police. Five people were arrested during the raids, but only three have been charged to date. Also seized during the raids were 25 dogs and dealer amounts of cocaine, heroin and marijuana, according to report from the Michigan State Police.

were placed in the care of the Michigan Humane Society

Police reported that officers med with search warrants ent to homes 1400 block of ffrey Lane in Inkster and the 3200 block of Otsego in Westland June 16, where officers also con-fiscated a dog treadmill, appar-ently used to train the fighting dogs. Police also found and seized more than $25,000 and other dog-fighting equipment while serving the two search warrants. The raids notice said were in response to reports of a dog-fighting operation and drug trafficking in the area and both homes are suspected to be con nected to those criminal opera

Mighty Men Group helps to improve city for all

A dream of atomer Little Lester of Inlictor may soon come true. Lester, 94, had a dream of finding 100 Black men willing to mentor young Black youths so that they might be able to better face the day-to-day challenges of life. A group of residents and religious leaders has taken on her goal and the Mighty Men of Purpose and Power, Inc. now meets at 7 p.m. every Friday at High Praise Cathedral Church on Moore Street in Inkster where they sing, pray and strive for personal growth, according to Dr. T.

for personal growth, according to Dr. 1.

Cortez Spann, president of the group.

More importantly, Spann said, the group discusses "what they can do help make the City of inkster a vital and thrivwhere the citizens are not more important, "is that of helping young men to realize that education, as well as faith, will open doors to better jobs, a higher standard of living, and will allow them the means and opportunity to give back to their community." Spann said the public is invited to attend the meetings of the group.

"We would like to partner with our Christian White and Arab-American brothers. We believe that diversity and inclusion is the key to moving this region and city." He added that everyone is invited to the group and to bring a friend." Spann also mentioned that training for volunteers willing to help mentor other young Black men will include a proposal
