A PUBLICATION OF ASSOCIATED NEWSPAPERS OF MICHIGAN THE BELLEVILLE ENTERDRISE + THE CANTON EAGLE + THE INVISTED LEDGER STAR + THE MORTHVILLE EAGLE

THE PLYMOUTH EAGLE * THE ROMULUS ROMAN * THE WAYNE EAGLE * THE WESTLAND EAGLE

Enterprise

Vol. 130, No. 40 The Belleville Ar Museum has a long list of programs planned for the next few weeks, including the Harvest Fest set for Oct. 10 at Fourth and Main

EAGLE

Vol. 68, No. 40 anton Leisure Serr will be opening a Flu Shot Clinic to adults 18 years of age and older from 9 a.m. until noon, Tuesday, Oct. 6 at e Summit on the Park. See page 3.

LEDGER STAR

Vol. 68, No. 40 estern Wayne Family

Health Centers, open since 2006 moved, to a larger cen-ter in Inkster last month located just a few hundred feet down the street from original location.

EAGLE

Vol. 15, No. 24

This year, the anticipated Maybury Farm Corn Maze which opened last week, is offering a real challenge to visitors with 10 acres of very tall, thick cornstalks

EAGLE

Vol. 15, No. 40 For the 17th year,

Phymouth Lions Club awards ed four scholarships to stu dents from the Plymouti

Roman

Vol. 130, No. 40

Teens and youngsters who participated in the Summer Reading Program at the Romulus Library read for a

EAGLE

Vol. 68, No. 40

Theatre will feature the Horror Show tion Society shad ocky ow-cast presentation along with the original film during

EAGLE Vol. 68, No. 40

The John Glenn High School cheerleaders are responsible for promoting team snirit but their uni forms barely pass muster prompting a fundraiser to prompting a funus...... help buy new attire. See page 2.

Canton localizes domestic abuse cases

Canton Township officials are taking a strong stand against domestic violence in their community: unity: Members of the board of trustees are expected to approve the amendment of an ordinance that would assign prosecution of misdemeanor domestic violence complaints to the local prosecutor, Greg Demopolous. The cases would be adjudicated in the 35th

District Court which serves Canton, Northville and currently, the cases are nan-dled by the office of Wayne County Prosecutor Kym Worthy who is not in favor of the move by township officials. Worthy said last week that she received no notification of the plan, based, according to Canton Township Public Safety Director Todd Mutchler, on the inaction on complaints submit ted to Worthy's office Mutchler are getting into when they take over these DV (domestic violence) cases.

meeting last month that shout 40 received no response and no action was forthcoming from the prosecutor. Mutchler said the move is an effort to ensure that domestic violence cases are prosecuted as quickly as possian email from township offi of any cases or warrant requests. She said she is unable to determine the status of the cases without more information and that her office was not notified of any missing warrant requests from Canton. Warthy said she felt the reas nublic complaint about the offieleney of her office before exer notifying her of the problem. She said the township action was unprofessional and that she should have been spoken to or notified of the situation before any such public criticism.

any such public criticism.

She also cautioned the town-ship officials regarding the intri-"They have no idea what they are getting into when they take over these DV (domestic violence) cases," she said. "These are very delicate cases that a prosecutor should not be handling unless they are specially Worthy's office currently hantic violence cases from through out the county each year. Worthy agreed it was a heavy workload and that more attorneys were needed in her office.

"I have nothing but the utmost respect for Kym Worthy and the job she is doing as and the job she is doing as Wayne County prosecutor," Mutchler said, adding his department will continue to work cooperatively with the prosecutor's office."We've just got to take care of the pec needs in Canton," he added needs in Canton," he added. Domestic violence cases pun-ishable by 93 days in jail and $500 fines which are misde meanors will be handled by Demopoulous if the amendme is approved. Costs for those se ices are estimated at about $120

to Worthy's office

Rolling along 70-year-old alleys reopened by family

A drive down Huron River Drive in omulus was a trip back in time for ophanic Wagel and her mother; Sytvia arecki, during the past decade or so. The pair would travel past Romulus Lanes and remember when Parecki's Lanes and remember when Parecki's fither first built be lanes as an addition to his neighborhood bar more than 70 years ago. Walter Parecki originally owned a small store in Romulus which he sold to buy the bar in 1935, he built he bowling alley. Upon his death in 1956, his wife, Helen and son, Eugene Parecki confinued operating the business. When Helen died operating the business. When Helen died in 1990, Eugene and his wife, Sybia, kept the bowling alley open. Helen died in 1980 and Sylvia and her husband continued operating the business until 2001 when they reductantly sold the flourishing family

During the past decade or so, however, driving past the building became more and more troubling for both Wagel and her and more troubling for both Waged and her mother as they witnessed the deteriora-tion of the building and saw the effects off time erode the flegade, until, evently, the business was shuttered. In May, the business came back to the family and they made the decision to take on the costly and extensive regains easiers sary to reopen Romalus Lanes. Pareck now 77, and Waged, 22, along with the cost of the family are operating the historic cities to the cost of the family are operating the historic cities.

Vorking at restoring formulus Lanes is a fami-y affair for Sylvia Parecki, aft whose father built the rys, her son-in-law and ughter Rob and aughter Rob and tephanie Wagel and her randchildren, Amanda and Matthew Wagel. At ght is a photo of Watter and Helen Parecki, origi-

"My grandfather bought the bar in 1943, and built the bowling alley as an addition in 1945," Wagel said. "We recently came across some photos of the first leagues who bowled here." She said there are many photos of bowlers from decades ago debuted at 10 a.m. Monday and has been gaining viewers all week "The sh nositive look at Detroit and real have time to serve our commu

Gaidica left the daily weather

that are being processed which will soon be hung in the alley. The renovations and clean up haven't been easy, Wagel admitted. No matter how simple a task seems, it always leads to expensive.

"We thought, hey, we can just replace these few floor tiles, only to find out there were problems with the sub-floor," she said. The family has painted and cleaned, repaired the awning and roof along with the outside of the building and made plans ficult to set these things done when they

Restaurant Week promoted on new show - 55

Frank Agostini of E.G. Nicks in Plymouth was one of the first sts on Live in the D an al new morning program on WDIV hosted by Northville resident Chuck Gaidica and new co-host Tati Amare. Agostini, with his pumpkin mousse, bourbon salmon and grilled meat loaf among other menu items, was on the new show to promote the third annual Restaurant Week in down-town Plymouth. During the nine-day event, which continues through Saturday, local partici-pating restaurants will feature three-course lunches and din-ners priced at $15, $25 or $35 per

He challenged Amore to dice

Being part of Live in the D was an unexpected but happy opportunity for me to connect with the people of Detroit... meat loaf while Gaidica worked on adding port wine to the hot, buttery reduction which was then poured over the entree. Amstini gave both bosts on A for their culinary efforts. Amare, a former television host and pro-ducer from New York where her ducer from New York where her award-winning local lifestyle, food and travel programs were aired, confessed to Agostini that she may have chested a bit on the mushroom slicing as she crew up in a restaurant istry. He can still be seen on his Force 4 Good reports and on special event programming like the Thanksgiving Day Parade aired by WDIV No coupons or reserv are need for Restaurant Week. "Just come down and join us," Compari's on the Park E.G.

ly all of southeast Michigan," Gaidica said. "Being part of Live in the D was an unexpected but Nicks, Flamma Grille, Ironwood Grill, Nico and Vali, The Post Local Bistro, Penn Grill, The happy opportunity for me to connect with the people of Detroit in a new way and still Sardine Room, Sean O'Callaghan's Irish Pub and Stella's Black Dog Tavern. Sponsors include Fat Tire, Darkhorse Brewing Co., Bell and Sons Sysro Barardi and

PLYMOUTH - WESTLAND

Lions Club awards annual scholarships

Club awarded four scholarships to stu-dents from the Plymouth Canton Community Schools at a meeting this sum-program is a four-year award of $2,000 program is a four-year award of $2,000 each year. Students receive the applica-tion for ongoing scholarships from their respective district high schools and their applications are sent to the Lions Club. A committee of members then chooses the recipient for that year using criteria including financial status, academic achievement and community service. At the June Plymouth Lions Club scholarchip meeting, Ryle Robertson, a gradu-arts of Plymouth High School, who is attending the University of Michigan majoring in Environmental Engineering, was named the awardee for this year. Continuing scholarships of $2,000 year-ly were awarded to: 2012 awardee John Chadwick, a Salem High School graduate who is attending Grand Valley State University majoring in Nursing; 2013 awardee Ellen Grimes, a Canton High School graduate who is attending Michigan State University majoring in Communications and the 2014 awardee Abby Wampler, a Canton High School and the first meeting took place in January of 1948.

Abby Wampler, a Canton High School graduate who is attending Michigan State University majoring in Industrial Engineering The Plymouth Lions Club was char-tered by Lions Club international in 1947

The club is dedicated to serving the Plymouth communities but also supports many organizations outside the local area. The club raises funds throughout the year dedicating 100 percent of all funds collect-ed to the organizations it supports. Among the many projects and organiza-tions that receive support are: Penrickton Center for Blind Children, Leader Dog, Michigan Eye Bank, Beaumont Silent

Children Bear Lake (a camp for vis impaired youth), Project Kidsight (free screening to identify children with vision disorders), Plymouth Historical Museum, Plymouth Community Library, Memorial Day Parade, eyeglass collections and recy-cling. Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation, Lions Hearing Center of Books, Greater Detroit Agency for the Blind, American Diabetes Association Camp Midicha (a summer camp experience for children with diabetes). Plymouth YMCA and Angel Flight, Lions Hearing Center and Madonna Hearing

Uniform effort

Applebee's helps cheerleaders collect funds for new outfits

The John Grenn High School cheer leaders are responsible for promoting team spirit through their infectious chants and up-beat attitude, but their attire is no laughing matter.

In fact, their uniforms barely pass

"They're worn, discolored, and falling apart at the seams," said John Glenn High School Cheer Coach Veronica Chambers. "The girls are piecing together uniforms that are up tolf-years old." Enter TEAM Schostak Family Restaurants (TSFR).

staurants (FSFR). The Michigan-based family-owned staurant group - with an expansive portfolio of casual, quick service and family dining restaurants throughout the state - is partnering with former Detroit Lions offensive lineman Scott Conover and NFL alumni to host a Dine to Donate to raise money for the cheerleaders from 11 a m

During the event, 15 percent of all guests' food sales will be donated to the John Glenn High School cheerleaders. The funds collected will assist in the purchase of new uniforms for all 48 team members who make up the varsity, junior

"It was a no-brainer because cheer-leaders are often overlooked but make a sizeable contribution to the overall high statance controlation to the overall right school football experience," said Conover, who played for Lions from 1991-1996 and currently serves as the secretary of the Detroit Chapter of the NFL Alumni

Several NFL alumni, including for Detroit Lions Lomas Brown and Ron Rice, will join Conover in meeting and estland from 2007-2009 and is a John lenn graduate and former junior varsity beerleader, will also attend. The fundraiser will also include prizes

"A longtime supporter of our local them with their fundraising goals: hools, TEAM Schostak Family For more information about the staurants is proud to partner with the cheer teams at John Glenn High School,' said Barb Pasciak, director of marketing "These students are an integral compo nent in infusing school spirit not only at school functions, but also within the com-munity, and we look forward to helping For more information about the event,

Swim classes offered at PARC

Complex at 650 Church St. in Plymouth is accepting registrations for swimming classes for all ages.

For more information ac-

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING CHARTER TOWNSHIP OF PLYMOUTH PLANNING COMMISSION that the Planning Commission of the Charter Township of Plymouth has received an NTDR HOUSING OFFICEN for purel R-78-036-09-000-000 pursuant to Zoning Or north of Am Johns Tool user of Scholine Stand under of Hances Hill Prices

CHARTER TOWNSHIP OF PLYMOUTI

die Test of the M-100 Optic Scan Vo For the Special Election Taxadar, November 3, 2015

NOTICE OF ADOPTION ORDINANCE NO. 99,020 TEXT AMENDMENT 012

ICLE XIX, IND INDUSTRIAL DISTRICT

EFFECTIVE DATE. The provisions of this to Bloard of Trustees on: September 22, 2015 Effective Date: October 8, 2015

CANTON - ROMULUS

Annual Halloween 'parade' is planned in Canton invited to Canton Leisure Services' 15th annual Trick or Services: 15th annual Trick or Treat Parade from 4-7 p.m. Priday, Oct. 30. This family-ori-ented tradition will take place at the Summit on the Park, located 46000 Summit Parkway, in Children ages 10 and vounger pants will enjoy seeing the Summit all decked out for ghoulish fun and ghastly festivities. Younger trick-or-treaters will enjoy the trail that passes a variety of themed-stations that allows them to visit with family-friendly characters, including: Captain America, the cast from Inside Out, characters from the Wizard of Oz Prozen's Anna and Elsa and more. For those who dare, a spooky Haunted House will be available in the Summit gymnasium that is scarier than ever. Organizers said this interactive Advance tickets are now on sale at $5 for Summit members and $6 for Canton residents and $4 for members of Bartlett's Kids Club. From Oct. 15-29. non-resident tickets will be available for $10 per child. A limited number of tickets for designated timeslots will be available for nurchose at the Summit Front Desk while supplies last. All ticket sales will end at 10 p.m. Oct. 29. Children of all ages (including infants and toddlers) planning to trick or lection hag.

"Every year the Trick or Treat Parade gets bigger and better, and this year is no exception. It's a great family event that is perfect for the little ones," said Laura Mortier, recreation speiolite for Conton Lieuro Laura Mortier, recreation spe-cialist for Canton Leisure Services. "This year our spookier rail experience for the older kids will feature a special Haunted House theme that we're really excited to debut, so trickand Guest, Atchinson Ford, Community Financial Credit Union, MI Express Care, and Twisted Rooster Additional sup-porters of this ammal Canton tra-dition include D&M Art Studio. Parents are responsible for Parents are responsible for the direct supervision of their children during this special event. For more information, call (734) 394-5460 or visit Cantonfun.org.

Library awards readers in the Summer Reading Program at the Romulus Library read for a combined 646

A total of 260 readers participated in the program this year, including 185 chil-dren, 33 teens and 42 adults, according to Library Director Patty Braden. In addion, she said, the you

"Summer Reading is important to the learning development of children teens because it keeps them engaged in reading while school is not in session. Summer Reading Programs are a significant factor in improving reading skills and prevent the loss of learning during the summer months "Braden said

According to schoolibraryjournal.com, "...children who read at least six books during the summer maintained or dren who didn't read any saw their skills slip by as much as an entire grade level". Studies show that children who participate in Summer Reading Programs also have higher test scores than those who do not participate, she added. Performers at the library this summer renomers at the normy this summer included: Storyteller Rosie Chapman; Doug Scheer performed his "Superhero Stunt Show; AZ Magic; Joel Tacey and his Extreme Duct Tape Workshop; Bill and Jessi from Warrior 3 Comies and Games, Reptile, Inc., and Alex Thomas and his Stop Motion Animation program.

Braden said that Skatin' Station and the Chapatwala family (owners of several local McDonald's) provided bookmarks that allowed young readers a free Happy Meal and a free skate. Emagine Movie Theater, the Henry Ford, Warrior 2 Participants in a "Make Your Own Comic Book" event with the Summ Program led by Bill and Jessi Schaffer from Warriors 3 Comics and Games.

Midway Sports and Entertainment, and Sportway each donated prizes for the mmer reading finales Braden added

Braden said she also wanted to thank the Romulus Police and Fire departments, the many volunteers who helped make the Summer Reading Kickoff Carnival a success, and the Romulus break next summer we plan to do the bathrooms and other repairs."

Family

she said the community is responding their efforts and the reopening has been selcomed by many loyal bowlers. Wagel grew up in Romulus and was a teacher in the Romulus schools for 10 years before making the decision to devote herself full-time to restoring the bowling alley and bar She and her family moved to psilanti a few years ago to have more pom to raise their few head of cattle and ome chickens. Her mother still has a tomulus address while her father died in 2002, a year after the bowling alley was remains in court, because of the circum-stances surrounding the return of the business, but they hope to have that situation hand very soon.

"The bar is going back to my grandfa er's name, it will be Walt's Bar," she said.

In addition to her mother Wagel's se

"My husband, Rob, is a nurse at St. Joe's and he talks to so many people there who have stories about bowling here or being here," she said. "It really is a part of the

Matthew, is also working at the establish-ment, acting as chief engineer, while her two daughters remain in college, one pur-suing a medical degree and the other studying nursing she said by to stay here and stick it out," she said.

"We're going to make it work. After all," she said with a smile, "this is the oldest here," she said. "It really is a part of the history of the city:"

"We allways say, the building may belong to us, but it really is the communi-ty's bowling alley," she added.
"We've all made the decision, as a fami-

I have to say, the city has been wonder CHARTER TOWNSHIP OF CANTON ACCESS TO PUBLIC MEETINGS

CHARTER TOWNSHIP OF CANTON COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT BLOCK GRANT

IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Charter Township of Caston, 1150 Cast is at the Office of the Clark up to 3:00 p.m. Thursday, October 15, 2015 fo

Flu shots offered in Canton

r a Flu Shot Clinic to adults 18 years of ge and older from 9 a.m. until noon, uesday, Oct. 6 in the Chestnut Room at the Summit on the Park located at 46000 mit Parkway in Canton mmit Parkway in Canton.

This is a single-day event and appointents are required. Reservations are now-ring taken at (734) 394-5485. Light helped fund the purchase of giveaways

This Flu Clinic will accept most forms of insurance and the flu shot will be offered at no direct cost. Please bring Medicare and/or insurance cards to ensure that service providers. Patients may also pay independently.

tion carried by all members procest. PERS IC HEAS under I, 2005 Tax Levy. (FRD) Motion by Homes

Belleville - Northville

Maybury Farm Corn Maze opens for season

This year, the anticipated Maybury Farm Corn Maze which opened last week, is offering a real challenge to visitors. Northville Community Foundation Director Jessica Striegle said that this year, the maze is 10-acres of "thick, hush corn that is very tall."

corn mat is very tail.

She said that a bell sounds to let visi-tors know the hayride to the corn maze will begin. They are dropped off at the entrance to the maze and then are on their own to weave their way through the tricky pathways of head-high corn plants. "The challenge," Striegle said, "is finding all eight of the wooden animals hidden oughout the mage as you are trying to

"If you complete the mase and find the location of the animals, you can enter to win four tickets to Disney On Ice or the

When visitors complete the maze, another hayride takes them back to the farm where cider donuts and snacks are Tiger Trek, Family Fun Day set Wan Buren Public Schools and face painting for chil-will hold a Tiger Thek Walka-thon and Family Fun Day items will be available for from 10 a.m. until 3 p.m. purchase. There will be a Santradic oct 2.4. The Tiger inges beack raffle and a 5050 Trek will take place in the Belleville High School athlets — General admission is free.

Belleville High School athlet-ic wing, 501 West Columbia Ave in Belleville. This event will be open to the public. The Tiger Trek Walk-a-Thon and Family Fun Day will feature vendors such as Pampered Chef, Jamberry Nails, Thirty-One, and many more. Crafters will also be on site with various hand-made items for sale. The event will feature inflatables ceeds from the maze are used to pay for the winter feed bills for the farm animals. Maybury Farm, operated by the Northville Community Foundation, a with ticket purchase required for some activities. We are looking forward to a fun, family event that will benefit Van Buren Public Schools.

Please come out and see our beautiful high school and enjoy our Tiger Trek activi-

Striegels said that the bigger challenge comes to those intrepeld visitors who attempt to solve the maze in the dark, when it gets just a little spoolsy. The Maybury Farm Corn Maze is open until 10 Friday and Saturday nights for those who are brave enough to find their way through with just the stars to light their way. Striegle said.

y, Striegle said. The maze is open from 6-10 p.m. Pridays, from noon until 10 p.m. Saturdays and from noon until 7 p.m. on Sundays through Nov 1. The last wagon leaves for the maze one hour prior to close. Group tours and bonfires for 15 or more are available. To reserve a date, call (248)374 0200. Cost to visit the corn maze is $7 per person and includes the hayride and admission to Mashury Farm As always children 2 and under are free

501(c)(2) nonnrofit organization is a his-Maybury State Park toric farm that provides interacti farm is located at 50165 Eight Mile Road in Northville. It is 1-1/4 mile west of Beck Road on Eight Mile, 1/2 mile west of Museum events planned for fall has a long list of programs planned for the next few weeks, according to director Katie Dalle A Harvest Fest is planned from 11 a.m. until 4 p.m. Oct. 10 at Fourth and Main streets, between the museum and the

This is a free event and includes the amual Nickel Dig and Scawnger Hunt.

A Paranormal Investigation Night at the Museum is planned

A Paranormal Investigation Night at the Museum is planned for 8 p.m. until 1 a.m. both Oct. Is the museum haunted? Participate in an actual ghost hunt throughout the halls of this

Admission, which is $25 pre-paid, includes pizza and soft drinks at 11p.m

The bi-annual Cemetery History Tour will take place from noon until 3 p.m. Oct. 17. This year, the tour will feature Hillside Cemetery in Belleville. Tickets are available at the museum, Belleville City Hall, Van Buren Township Hall, Sumpter Township Hall and Sumpter Township Hall and the Belleville Area Library. The Big Reveal following the Night at the Museum Paranormal Investigation is planned from 7-9 p.m. Oct. 22. Visitors can see what the two overnight paranormal investi-

The Child Dance party featuring access to the jail at the museum for pho-tos will take place from 3-6 p.m. Oct. 25. In addition there will be games, candy, and black cat piñata filled with candy

Museum Fall/Winter hours are from 3-7 p.m. Tuesday and Wednesday and from noce until 4 p.m. Thursday, Friday, Saturday, Group Tours and Archival Research by appoint-

The museum is located at 405 Main St, Belleville. For more information, call (734) 697-

Classified

at therapy/psychi d office. Must have ice esp.; computer is, microsoft office ment, Global employment. Implement and configure Enferprise Compensation Management and Benefits like plans, review, eligibility, guideline and integration with SAP payroll. Configure ESS/MSS from SAP back and like OADP, ESS servic-

Sc. SAP HR Consultart Clariton, Mi - Wick on all phases of implementation to post go-live support.
Provide L3 support of SAP
HOM Modules PR, CM, Enterprise Compensation,
E

Experience Levels/ Sign On Bonus $2000-$4000 based on experience 59. Auctions bachelor's slent Must be as a ant, SAP rual Lead.

and SAP ALE/D

VEHICLE PURILIC AUCTION ND WILL BE SOLD A PUBLIC AUCTION, OCT 14, 2015 11:00 AM

Excellent Pay

metts, Retirement met Call Penske Tr

8964 INKSTER RD

WC100302

MICHIGAN

Fall Stocking Trout

SAWMILLS from only $4,307,00 MAKE & SAVE MONEY with your own bandmill Cut lumber any dimension. In Stock, ready to ship! FREE Info/DVD

You Dio It? H Can You Dig It? Heavy Equipment Operator Caseel We Offer Training and Certifications Running Buildozers, Backhoes and Excavators. Lifetime Job Placement. VA Benefits Eligible! 1-805-362-5497 (MCH)

PIONEER POLE BUILD-INGS- Free Estimates Licerased and insured-2x6 Trussee-45 Year Warranty Galvalume Steel-19 Colors-Since 1975-#1 in The Facile 734-467-1900 Need a job? Looking to buy?

Looking to sell? Need to rent?

Find it fast in the Eagle's Classifieds.

Call 734-467-1900 to place your classified ad or email

ads@iournalgroup.com

Inkster - Wayne

Family health clinic moves to new building

The health center was former-ly housed in less than 10,000 square feet where primary med-ical care for all ages, OB/GYN, general dentistry and integrated behavioral health were provided. street from original location, has been tripled to 29,000 square feet. The new facility located at 2700 Hamlin Blvd. in Inkster, has 39 examination rooms, up from the former 12, and six denta oneratories un finm two at the

the community can access servic-es and wait time at the center is reduced, as each medical provider has three examination rooms, rather than sharing just a few, a spokesperson noted. Behavioral health staff has dedi-cated office space for the first time, offering more timely ase and more privacy, she long time that we needed to expand both our physical space and bring on more providers to meet the health and wellness needs of families in the Inkster area" said Linda Atkins CEO Our goel is to offer high-guality wait for an appointment.

have snace for them to work and started collaboration with Garden City Hospital to bring in more OE/GYN doctors and a irse midwife so that we can offer more prenatal care than we otter more prenatal care than we could before." The center will also offer more internal medi-cine and pediatric care as there are more mores to use she said trician has also been added to the medical staff and other partnershins with area graduate bring on more adult medi providers in the near future. "Our goal is to offer high-qual-ity care with little to no wait for an appointment...people ne ccess to appointments that fit beir schedule and their needs we want to see them as to come including a pharmacy tele-psychiatry with Wayne State University School of Medicine faculty a community room and a teaching kitchen. The National Kidney Foundation will have an office in the building as well.

The new address is 2700 lamlin Blvd, which is immedi-tely behind the Inkster post

The phone n (313) 561-5100. More information can be found www.WWFHC.org or Facebook at Western Wa Family Health Centers

Shadow cast performs with Rocky Horror Show movie be a part of Rockytober this year is the classic State Wayne

The State -Wayne Phoenix The State -Wayne Phoenix Theatre will feature the Rocky Horror Show Preservation Society shadow-cast presenta-tion along with the original film, The Rocky Horror Picture Show ring October The 40-year-old movie h been showing on the big screen been showing on the big screen at the theater for two and half years. This mouth, the show will include the shadow-cast experi-ence of the Michigan Rocky Horror Preservation Society on Oct. 3, 10, 27 and 24 with a very

The Rocky Horror Picture Show Experience is something de ourselves on offering to dience," said co-executive povie is full of great songs and be a part of the entire experi-ence. We are very fortunate to be able to provide that with a full shadow cast performing along with the movie, and the use of the props you all remember, like throwing toast, cards, toilet paper, and using squirt guns. We also have pre-film videos and a pre-show dance party, it's an amazing atmos-

The Rocky Horror Picture how is a cult classic and is the ongest continuously running film in cinematic history since first being released in the mid 1970s. Phoenix Theatres and to have been able to continue a 40 year tradition by no Rocky Horro

Jacobson, owner of Phoenix

siastic shadow cast truly make this show the most unique, fun and memorable night you can spend at the movies," Jacobson added. "We had a cruzy idea to try to recapture this classic movie-going experience over two years ago. More than 7,000 natrons have descended or layne for twice-monthly special nowings from throughout Michigan and as far away as Chicago to relive a film from their youth or discover it for the very first time.

The Michigan Shao and crew have truly developed and erew have truly developed into one of the finest and most professionally staged shows around the world, and is just great fun to be an audience par-ticipant," Jacobson said. "The a that film has been sh in cinemas continuously for 40 years and is sold out for every performance at State-Wayne has performance at State-Wayne has been simply amazing." The classic theatre was built in 1946 and after serving mil-lions of mover-goers in Wayne County, went through a digital overhaul late in 2012 and was purchased by Phoenix Theatres in 2014. The theater is located at 35310 West Michigan Ave. For

Wayne County and the surrounding are will be given the opportunity to have a lifetime Erie Metal Roofing System installed on their home at a reasonable cor today to see if you qualify. Not only will you receive the best price possible, but we will give you access to no money down bank cing with very attracti w an Erie Metal Roof will ke

An Erie Metal Roofing System will provide your home with unsurpassed "Beauty and Lasting Protection"!

DON'T MISS THIS OPPORTUNITY TO SAVE Call Now! 1-877-460-4050

248.477.2100 CHIROPRACTIC Performance Solutions 24120 Meadowbrook Rd., Suite 200 Novi, MI 48375

Mail your subscription to: Associated Newspapers of Michigan PO, Box 6320, Plymouth, MI 48170

☐ 1 year subscription $65	☐ 6 month subscription $32.50
Norma	Date

sponsoring a Hats For The Homeless drive ough Dec. 18. Donors are asked to drop off new hats, mittens, gloves, scarves, blankets, and socks at Plymouth Community United Way, 960 W.

Ann Arbor Trail, Suite 2, Plymouth, during business hours 7:45 a.m. until 4:30 Monday - Thursday and from 7:45 a.m. until 2:45 Friday. All adult and children's sizes are more information, call Randi is at (734) 453-6879, ext. 7 or e-mail

The Michigan Philharmonic will open e regular season with Denim & Dvorak on sturday, Oct. 3 at the Village Theater in Subtitled Thisee of the New World' the Subthed, "loices of the New World, the concert features Dvorak's extraordinary tribute to America, the "New World Symphony" which combines folk music from the Czech composers homeland along with Native American and Africa American folk times. The concert also includes the 'Festiva Overture on the Star Spangled Banner' by Dudley Buck and a new work called "The Pussion of John Brown' based on the life of the tragic pre-Civil War abolitionist John Brown. For tickets and information call

(734) 451-2112 or visit www.michigamphil.org

Open House set at area fire stations
The Canton Fire Department will be hosting an open house from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 3, at Fire Station #1, located at 1100S. Canton Center Road
The open house will include station s, a vehicle extrication demonstration gear dress-up station, fire safety fur tours, a venues was a venue fire gear dress-up station, fire safety fun bags for kids, fire prevention handouts, hot dogs and popcorn. The Fire Safety House will also be open for children to tour.

ational Fire Prevention Week, Oct. 4-10, to comote fire safety in the community. For further information contact the on Fire Department office at (734) 394 ment will be open for tours and discussions with the firefighters Oct. 4 through Saturday, Oct.10. The main City Hall Fire Station will be open to the public from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. daily during Fire Prevention Week. Residents are welcome anytime to Calendar of events view the equipment, chat with the fire fight-ers or pick up some fire safety information from the Fire Department. In addition to the small individual to: the Department is also now schedu group tours of the Fire Station. To Sche a tour, call (734) 453-1234 extension 280

Fitness, health care, job placement, edu-cation and disabilities will be among the topics covered this year at the sixth annual Canton Community Foundation Veterans from 8 a.m. until 2:30 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 3 at the VisTaTech Center at Schoolcraft College, 18600 Haggerty Road in Livonia. The event is free and will include cra beer and barbeque for lunch, along with each hor organizers said For information, call (734) 495-2100

nily Fun Day plan

DFCU Financial has partnered with the Salvation Army to help local families in need, and is asking that the community lps by bringing an unused hat and/or wes to Plymouth Family Pun Day at the Plymouth branch between 10 a.m. and 2 nm Saturday Oct 2

DFCU is located at 855 Ann Arbor Road in Plymouth.
In addition to the donation dri ent will have food, givenways and fun for all ages, including face painting, games and prizes, princess meet-and-greets, a pet adoption display and more.

LaMancha is on stage Man of La Mancha has con

The classic story of Don Quixote will ntinue on the Barefoot Productions stage ough Sunday, Oct. 4. Tickets are priced at $20 and can be ordered by calling the Barefoot Productions Box Office, (734) 404-6889 or oning online to www.instanbarefoot.com All performances begin at 8 p.m., with the exception of Sunday matiness which begin at 2 p.m. There is no intermission in the production which runs for just under two hours. The Barefoot Productions Theatre is located at 240 N. Main St., Plymouth.

The Wayne Historical Society will spon-sor the Historical Cemetery Walk through Glenwood Cemetery 32501 Glenwood in time of year again.

Home Tour tickets on sale

Tickets are now on sale for the Holiday Home Tour presented by the Northville Community Foundation.
This year, the tour will take place from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m. Nov. 13 and 14.

Again this year, five gorgeous homes are been selected to be decorated for the holidays, explained Foundation the holidays, explained Foundation Executive Director Jessica Striegle. The style of each home is different and there is something for every taste. This year, the tour is an exceptional blend of traditional, woodsy, coay and Victorian," she said.

"Each home is beautiful on its own but with our talented team of decora-tors the homes come to life with ideas on top of ideas for decorating your home for the holidays," Striegle added. Tickets for the Holiday Home Tour are $25 in advance and $30 the day of

The event will feature the stories of so ty. Cider and donuts will be available There is no admission fee, although mations are welcome. Parking will be allowed in the cemeters but there will no parking on Glerwood Street.

For more information access the Wayne Historical Society Facebook page or call 212)905.0821 PENN-Taste-Tic Crawl set The Plymouth Community Chamber of Commerce, in a joint effort with the Priends of the Penn, will host the Annual PENN Taste-Tic Downtown Plymouth Restaurant Crawl from 5-8 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 6. "Crawlers" can walk around downtown Plymouth enjoying delicious samples and treats from many of their favorite Plymouth restaurants.

Attendees will get a chance to vote for their favorite taste and restaurant. Tickets are pre-sale only The cost is $20 for adults and $15 for children 10 and younger and can be purchased at the chamber office, $50

W. Ann Arbor Trail in downtown Plymouth.

enjoying their golden years through a free lowebureh org

Haven in Northville, Gardenview, or the Northville Chamber of Commore. Tickets may also be purchased using Visa or MasterCard by calling (248) 374-0200. Tickets are limited and the tour does sell out each year, Striegle cautioned.

Proceeds from the Holiday Home Tour help fund the work of the Northville Community Foundation
including holiday gifts for sonior cititent confined to assisted living facilities, grants for nonprofits and community programs, scholarships for stadents, coordinating the Northville downs, coordinating the Northville ndependence Day Parade and opera ons at Maybury Farm.

The Northville Community

The Northville Community Foundation, is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization. For more information.

from 11 a m until noon Wednesday Oct the Chestnut Room of the Summit on the Park, located at 46000 Summit Parkway. Canton. Light refreshments will be availwhether currently retired, or thinking about it, to discuss their goals for retire ment, providing tips focused on everything from A to Z related to securing a stable financial future.

There is no cost for this class, however registration is required.

For additional information or to register for this class, visit www.cantonfun.org, or call (734) 394-5485. A Mom-2-Mom and Bake Sale is plan at Willow United Methodist Chu a.m. until 1 p.m. Oct. 10. Admission is a non-perishable food item or $1. Gently used clothing, toys, books, games and other items will be for sale. All proceeds go to Willow Women's Group Thanksgiving baskets, the food pantry and

The church is located at 36925 Wil

"Best Whitefish in Lower Michigan"

Planked Lake Superior

Lake Superior Whitefish served Charlevoix Style on a seasoned oak plank, surrounded by Duchess Potatoes and fresh vegetables

A truly spectacular presentation $2020

500 Forest Ave. · Plymouth (734) 414-6400

HOURS: Mon.-Tues.-Weds. 11-9 Thur. 11-10 • Fri.& Sat. 11-11 • Sun. 12-8