

A PUBLICATION OF ASSOCIATED NEWSPAPERS OF MICHIGAN THE BELLEVILLE ENTERPRISE + THE CANTON FAGLE + THE INVESTER LEDGER STAR + THE NORTHVILLE FAGLE

THE PLYMOUTH EAGLE • THE ROMULUS ROMAN • THE WAYNE EAGLE • THE WESTLAND EAGLE

www.associatednewspapers.net

Couple charged in area-wide crime spree

ENTERPRISE Vol 120 No 42

an Buren Township ored 15 individuals who have worked as long-time election inspectors during a regular meeting of the board of trustees last month. See page 3.

The Village Theater at erry Hill is currently exhibiting 40 works from the 23rd Annual Canton Fine Arts Exhibition, including the juried winners of the

See page 3.

The Inkster Legends are empting to live up to their name again this year with the help they offer more 100 local families at the holidays rough an annual raffle See page 4.

EAGLE Mai 15 No. 24

wthville High School will host a Community Open House from 1-3 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 25. Visitors can tour the state-of-the-art, technologyequipped high school with udent leaders as guides. See page 5.

Plymouth Townshin re are seeing informa tion in a hit and run incident that injured a 10-year-old child who was running across Ann Arbor Road at Sheldon last week.

One Romulus veteran received a gesture of appreciation for his 22 years of service last month as a small ed on his home to make repairs

The electronic age has ome to the 29th District come to the 29th District Court in Wayne where traffic tickets can now be resolved online in some cases with the installation of an online. See page 2.

The official dedication of the newly-renovated Jefferson Barns Community Vitality Center in historia unity Norwayne will take place at 4 p.m. torr See page 2.

Inlister at 548 a.m. where they stole cash, credit cards and a laptop from the woman at the home. They are accused of also forcing their way into a home on the 30800 block of Somerset in Wortland and rebbles of fund-A pair of suspects appeared in court today to face charges of armed robbery, home invasion and felony firearm violations following what police described officers.

following what police described as a crime spree Sept. 28. The pair, Duan Crawford, 25 and Darlene Binyard, 25, both of Inkster, are accused of forc-ing themselves into the home of elderly man on B in Garden City just after mid-night Sept. 28. They are accused of stealing a pistol from the man and taking his car. Police said that the couple kicked down the oor of a home in the 1500 block of West River Park in in Westland and robbing a fami-ly of four at gunpoint at 6:10 9.00

They are also charged in the attempted robbery of another woman in the 28500 block of Somerset in Inkster at 6:39 a.m. In this case, the intended victim was able to prevent the pair from entering her home.

The two were identified when the vehicle stolen in the Garden City invasion apparent-ly ran out of gas and the pair left evidence in the car which led to their identity and subse-quent arrest by Westland police

Crawford and Binyard were arraigned in Westland 18th District Court on charges of counts of armed robbery and one count of felony firearm. Crawford is also charged with being a felon in possession of a firearm and being a fourth-degree habitual offender and as a paro le absconder

Not guilty charges were entered for both defendar who remain in custody in li of $750,000 bond. Their prob of shapped blar inter prote-bly cause hearing was sched-uled today at the Westland Court and a preliminary exami-nation on the charges is set for Oct 22

Westland police said th breaking and entering at a home on the 33600 block of Avondale that also occurred in the early-morning hours of Sept. 28 remains under investigation. Additional charge: against the couple are expected to be filed in other communi ties according to police

The beat goes on Heart attack victim reunites with doctor who saved him during race

The Red October Run had a much happier ending this year for Raymond Decher Dreher, a Taylor resident, finished the 5K race in 34.38, good for second place in the 70-10 and mum. Let work the men 74 age group. Last year, the race nearly killed him.

A regular runner, the 70-year-old Dreher was nearing the corner of Howe and Annapolis roads-just a few blocks from Resumont Hosnital elming sense of dizziness. He stopped running, walked for a few yards, and fell flat on his

. The world was spi "The world was spinning and then I just dropped," Dreher said. "I don't recall much of anything after that." Dreher had suffered a major heart attack, caused by blockages in several prime arteries. He flat-lined in the street and required immediate care to save his life. Fortunately for him, fate intervened. A surse running behind him noticed the fall and rushed to his aid. Even better, Karen Weaver, M.D., a family medicine physician who heads the med ical education program at Beaumont Hospital - Wayne, was also nearby Normally, she volunteers at a water station along the race route but she had momentarily left her post and was escorting her 6-yearold daughter back toward the hospital for a pit stop. By hap penstance, she came upon the hectic scene. "When I went around the over him, I saw people standing over him, Weaver said. "I start-ed running toward him. When I got there, the nurse was starting help, as well." EMS soon arrived, and used a defibrillator to restart Dreher's heart before

See Race, page 2

Longest-serving Plymouth trustee is mourned

Funeral services took place yesterday for the longest-serving member of the Plymouth Township Board of Trustees, Township Board of Trustees, Kay A. Arnold, who died last Pidag; Oct 8. Mrs. Arnold, 76, was born March 26, 1989, in her grand-mother's home in Columbus, Ohio, to Edward and Wilma Bradfute. She attended Central Michigan University, and she was an avid Ohio State Backaye for

She was the be er at Colonial Collision in Plymouth, where she had worked since 1983 She was also worked since 1983. She was also very active in the Plymouth community, having served two terms on the Plymouth Community Chamber of Commerce Board and 12 years on the Community Financial Credit Union Board. She served on the Republican Committee Warm 10th and chowards Wayne 11th and she was cur ng her fifth ter Plymouth Township Trustee, for a total of 22 years of dedicated service.

She was a volu United Way, the Plymouth Community Arts Council and the Schoolcraft College Foundation

Mrs Arnold served as a "Mrs. Arnold served as a trustee for 23 years and worked on the Planning Commission for 20 years. She was a quiet leader who led by example-she believed in Plymouth. Everywhere you go in Plymouth Tournship you'll see evidence of her work," said Township Comment Determine Township Supervisor Shannon Price.

Mrs. Arnold's close friend Marilyn Massengill spoke fondly about their long relationship. Massengill said she met Arnold in 1992 for the first time at a swearing-in ceremony before the late Plymouth Judge James Garber. Both Arnold and Massengill were newly- elected hip Clerk and Arnold as Trustee. They continued to work together until Massengill retired after 16 years of service. Arnold continued to hold her elected position and work on the town-ship planning commission at the same time until becoming ill a w months ago.

"She was a loyal friend-meone you could talk to and are your feelings with ... we th celebrated our birthda both celebrated our birthdays and holidays together. This July we took a really nice cruise to Alaska. It was Kay's first ocean cruise." Massengill said. "We enjoyed each other, had a lot of fun. She was always there for me." Massengill said. Township officials spoke of Township officials spoke of Arnold's dedication to Plymouth and the various projects she supported in the community. Fellow board member Bob Doroshewitz, who worked with Mrs. Arnold since 2004, said the two of them would often talk and he would joke with her saying, "Source a tough ole broad, and they would have "a goo laugh together." "She'll surely be missed...

sd T really respect her years of serv ice to the community," Doroshewitz said.

Mrs. Arnold is survived by her beloved husband, Tim; her

See Arnold, page 5

mm

THE BEAT CON INCOME ACTORNEY BUT 204 209 766

Ray Dreher, who survived a heart attack at the Red October Run in Wayne last year returned with his son, Mark Dreher, to complete the 5K run this month.

WAYNE - WESTLAND

Ray Dreher, fourth fro o support him were Karen Weaver, MD, who saved his life last year and and Michelle Pielter, Mark Dreher, Dreher, Weaver, Laurie and Billy W rile Pfeifer 6 in front

Race

FROM PAGE 1

eting him to the nearby hospital. The initial diagnosis was that Dreher required an emergency quadruple bypass. Dreher responded to the initial treatment so well, however, that the operation was scheduled for the following Monday.

He said he had never experienced any

He said he had hower experiment any symptoms prior to the race. He ran 2 miles a day, and thought he was in good health. "I was pushing it a little, but I think it was a godisend that I did that. Who knows if that had happened where I typically run, back in the woods where there isn't anyone, it could have been a different aver said she'll always r that day, and is glad to have a chance to meet him again under much better circumstances. "Tm a family doctor and I don't always get to see this kind of miracle," she said. "We do things little by little every day and hope it makes a difference. This is some-thing special."

Dreher brought a whole team with him this year all dressed up in corresponding t shirts that read: The beat goes on, since Red October Run 2014. He said it was a way of th

neonle who saved him and naving tribute

ir efforts

"I never really had the op thank all the right people. I want the world to know," he says, "As far as Im con-cerned, I'm here because of what these folks did. Without the things they did-I wouldn't have made it. Had they not been ere they were at, it would ha ve been a lot different." The Red October returned to the nity for the 25th year on Oct. 3. The event drew 968 people, from ages 2 to 96. It featured a 5K run, a 5K walk a 10K run along with the Kids Jr. Red October, a mile-long race designed for young neonle

"This has been an awesome event through the years we've catered to every-one from young children and families - to "first time" racers - to the elite competitors," said Cindy Cook, community benefit coordinator for Beaumont Health. Top finishers included:

Lisa Veneziano, 51, of Fenton was the top female finisher in the 10K event with a time of 38.59, which is a pace of 6.17 per mile. Landry Bennett, 23, of East Lansing clocked it at 35.00, good for a 5.39 per mile pace and first place among male finishers. In the 5K, Kira Garry was the top female finisher with 17:05. The 22-year-old Am Arbor re ent set a 5K a pace of 5:31 per mile. Paul Mayer, 48, of Ann Arbor was the top male finisher in the 5K run, with a time of 17:53, which is a ex run, with a time of 17:53, v every 5:46. For a complete li lits, visit oakwood.org/redoc and follow the race results link

Center dedication tomorrow

The official dedication of the efferson Barns Community Vitality Center will take place at 4 p.m. tomorture repairs. The Norwayne neighb The norwayne neighborhood was The newty-renovated center, located in the historic Norwayne district of the Historic Places in July of 2013. community, now houses administrave city offices for-verly located in the Dorsey Center onstr 1942, the Norwayne neighborhood is in the oldest in Westland, erected during World War II for the workers at the Willow Run Plant. Romber

During the neak war offert the subdivi-Juring the peak war enor, the statisti-sion was home to more than 20,000 resi-dents. By the 1980s, the area housing shock started to decline and it was appar-ent that the subdivision was in need of Will that the second second terest in the historic area and his efforts along with those of the city counmbers have resulted in the stabilization of the neighborhood. The city used federal funding through qualifying programs, and has encouraged invest-of 2013. The Jefferson Barns Communit Vitality Center is the result of a $650,000 renova tion of the former Jefferson Barns Elementary school which has been vacant since 2010 The new facility includes the Norwayne Boxing Club and a library

Raskethall courts and baseball fields will be installed next spring. The center is also home to Nankin Transit which is a local bus system that services senior citizens and handicapped residents in the City of Westland, Wayne, Inkster and Garden City.

vation grants. Funds have also been used for road improvements and infrastruc-

The dedica ory will begi The dedication ceremony will begin with a ribbon cutting and presentations by local dignitaries followed by tours of the facility Light refreshments will be served. The Jefferson Barns Community

Vitality Center is located at 32150 Dorse

Court offers online payment

Traffic tickets can now be resolved nline in some cases with the installation of an online platform through Court Innovations Matterhorn. Now, drivers who have received some minor infractions can access the system, answer questions through the screen prompts and determine if they are eligible to resolve the violation online. If so, the driver can request a review from the Wayne Police Department If the police ant annouses the near be forwarded to the judge or a magistrate for a determination. Motorists can follow their case online and the decision of the court will be sent to them by text or email urt will be sent to them by text or email. The electronic program is voluntary ad drivers can opt for a hearing in court To access the new program, visit the 29th District Court website and clinic on Online Ticket Review to begin the eligibility process. Only mir

the online service

Phone

Sancture

Belleville - Canton

Art winners on display

arrently exhibiting artwork from the 23rd currently exhibiting artwork from the 23rd Annual Canton Fine Arts Exhibition dis-playing more than 40 works of some of the best artists in the area. The exhibit con-tains works in a variety of media, includ-ing paintings, sculptures, mixed media, charcoal drawings, pastels, ceramics and related works.

otography. This year, wir ers include: Best This year, winners include: Best of Show - "Sam in Sunlight," by Deborah Hyde, Second Place - "Self Portrait," by Scott Laga and Third Place -"Summertime," by Cathy Vettese.

Honorable mentions were awarded to: Shell Games." by Paul Van Heest, and "Katrina in a Yellow Hat," by Ellen Leigh. Merit awards were presented to: "Real Bad Leather," by Jean-Paul Aboudib, Bad Leather," by Jean-Paul Aboudib, "Wolfy," by Took Gallagher, "Reach," by Wan Chuan Kesler and "Fred," by Al

"This is a great opportunity to see sev-eral newly emerging and established "We are grateful to be able to display a stitist recent works in one location" said wide variety of art and creativity that

23rd Annual Canton Fine Arts Exhibit 2015 Best of Show: "Sam in Sunlight" Deborah S. Hyde of West Bloomfield by

ond place wi cott Laga, third place winner Cathy Vettese, honorable mention winners, Paul Var eest and Ellen Leigh, meit award winners Jean-Paul Aboudib, Took Gallegher and A feber, Juror Nancy Coumoundourso and Cultural Commission members Patrici ber, Juror Nancy Cournoundo liams and Susan Schwandt.

events and activities to the community. In 2004, Canton Project ARTS was absorbed by Canton Leisure Services and is cur-rently guided by the Canton Commission abscesses the sole maps of latent and block in this areas of latent and and commitment to the arts." The Canton Phase Arts Exhibition began in 1998 as an activity of Canton Project Altrs, a cultural programming between the solal based are and by appointement by call This necess are exhibit as the Gallery@VT will continue through Oct 28, from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m. Monday through Fridag, during public performances at the theater and hy annointment by calling (734) 394,5308 The collery located at 50400 (134) 594-500c The gamery, because it 50400 Cherry Hill Road in Canton, is closed on holidays. For more information call (734) 394-5308 or visit www.cantonvillagethe-

PAGE 3

'Booville' Frankenstein to visit library

The "Booville" Area District Library will present Disney's Frankenweenie at 3 p.m. Oct. 17. The movie centers on young Victor who conducts a science experiment to being his belowed dog. Sparky, back to life, only to face unintended, some-times monstrous, consequences. The film is rated PG. Audiences can dress as their favorite Frankenstein character and win prizes during the event. The 1910 and 1931 versions of

Frankenstein will be shown at the free

Report booinging at 7 p.m. Oct. 20 The double feature will be introduc local movie buff Paul Henning. Once again, audiences can dr their favorite Frankenstein character to win prizes. The library will present the PG rated Young Frankenstein at 7 p.m.

- t. 27. The Belleville Area District Library
- is located at 167 Fourth St. in Bell For information, call (734) 689-3291. All the movie presentations are

To subscribe to The Eagle call 734-467-1900.

CHARTER TOWNSHIP OF CANTOR ACCESS TO PUBLIC MEETINGS

- common services and services and services and services and services and services individuals with disabilities encoded and services individuals with encode of the Charter Torowhele of Charter Torowhele articles and the disabilities requiring and and and/or tapes of primed materials being considered at the meeting. Individuals with disabilities requiring and a service individual with disabilities requiring and the services individuals with disabilities requiring and the services.

Guyn Bricher, ... nthip of Cannol, 1150 ... Cannol, MI 4815 (734) 384-5260

PLANNING COMMISSION CHARTER TOWNSHIP OF CANTON NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

URE LAND USE MAP OF THE COM

bible Art 33 of 2008 of the State of Michigan, as amondes, an of Camon that the Planning Commission of the Chatter Toronds index 2, 2015 in the First Flaor Meeting Reson of the Ca wor Result at 760 p.m. in the following proposed amondment 1

MCCLEMPHA TRUST FUTURE LAND USE AMENDMENT - CONSIDER REQUIST TO AMEND T LAND USE MAP FROM RURAL RESEDENTIAL TO VERY LOW DESSITY RESEDENTIAL FOR PARCEL NUM DIA NOT SET ONLY THE RESEDENTIAL TO VERY LOW DESSITY RESEDENTIAL FOR PARCEL

Van Buren honors long time election workers

ials who have worked as long-time tion inspectors during a regular meet ing of the board of trustees last month. Township Clerk Leon Wright presented resolutions to Sonhie Zoller, Josenh Najewski, Shirley Elmore and Brian and Cynthia Der, who traveled from Traverse City to accept on behalf of his late mother, Hope Derr. Each of the individuals worked at the election polls for more than 30 years. Cleva Lubke who also worked at the polls for more than three decades was unable to attend the meeting.

Honored for 20 years of service were elanie Majewski, Fay Taylor and Paul stor for 20 source is an election inspecto unable to attend the ng. Marjo Riggs, Novella Hamiel, Ray Bergeron and Connie Testorelli, accepting for her late mother, Agnes Cook, were thanked for 15 years of service. David and Mark Cook accepted on behalf of their father, Bob Cook and Joanne Brogdon accepted an award for her late husband Clarence Brogdon. Nancy Carey was unable to attend the meeting to receive her award.

Wright, in presenting the framed reso-lutions, said the poll inspectors were good ambassadors and called them champions

Canton Business Expo is planned

______ Consumer Expo is sponsored mesos are expected to bring their work to the Consumer Expo planned for 3-7 Thisted Rooster and Vibe Credit Units pun Cet 22 in the grand hallroom at the Summit on the Park

Consumer Expo is sponsored by Community Financial Credit Union, For more information, access www.can-onchamber.com or call (734) 453-4040.

Check us out online at www.associatednewspapers.net.

INKSTER - ROMULUS

Paint the town Volunteers work on historic home

One Romulus veteran received a ges-ture of appreciation for his 22 years of service last month as a small army of vol-unteers descended on his home to make

Gerald Wendland served in the U.S. Army for more than 22 years and is a veter-an of Vietnam. He suffers from diabetes an of Vietnam. He suffers from diabetes and the disease cost him one of his logs. His declining health severely limited his ability to care for his Goddard Road home which was originally built in 1883, and has been in his family for saveral governitors. When officials from Weststide Distributes came to the city associating for a community service project to sponsor.

Maxor LeRoy Burrouff assigned the task of finding a project to the Ordinance Building and Community Services depart-ments where personnel searched for city homes where owners were in need of help with maintenance due to health or financial circumstances. They suggested Wendland's home which was the unanimous choice of city officials

There was a great deal of work necessary at the Wendland home before the vol-unteers could even begin the painting. Rolling Thunder Chapter 5 members, city employees and members of local St. John Lodge #44 were busy for two weeks prio to the painting removing extensive and overgrown brush which covered most of the home's exterior, power washing to remove old paint, and repairing and replacing rottom wood on the structure. "Mr. Wendland's military service and dedication to our city made him an out-standing candidate for this project," said Robert McCraight, director of Public Services and Veterans Outreach Committee Chair for the City of Romulus. Committee Chair for the City of Rominus, and member of local veterans support group, Rolling Thunder Chapter 5. Volunteers were finally able to begin painting at the home on Sept. 24 and more than 40 volunteers from Westside Distributor's volunteers i rom weststute Distributor's volunteered their own time to complete the renovations at the home. "Community involvement is one of our company-wide core values. We are a Romulas-based company, so we wanted to give back to our base through a hands-on project to get our whole team involved," said Tom Manor, sales manager for Westside Distributors says Industry and its citt ns working toget er'," said Burcroff. "If there are other "This was a great example of the kinds of partnerships we are looking for from our local businesses. Just like our moto

Mayor LeRoy D. Burcroft, left, home-owner Garald Wendland, Romulas Community Outreach Laiston and Romulas Director of Publics Saviess, Chair of Veterans Outreach Committee and member of Roling Tundor Chapter Risbert McCraight historic Goddard Road home, shown bolore the volunteers' work in photo at left.

"My home was built in 1898 and I wa happy and thankful to a come together to help me take care of it said a grateful Wendland as he admire the completed project

Annual raffle will help 100 families at holidays The Inkster Legends are another single mom with seven children," Smiley said. "These Pistons game against LeBron James and the Cleveland attempting to live up to their name again this year with the help they offer more 100 local families at the holidays.

the group, said that the increased need in the community has

"Last year, we were able to help 200 children in 52 families," he said. Smiley said that the help from milies at the nondargs. The annual raffle which sup-orist the 2015 Christmas weaway is now under way and effort, as well as several other $10 tickets are now on sale. sponsors who donate to the Fred Smiley, the director of effort.

"Last year we had a single mother with nine children and are people who really n The effort is finded complete-ly by donations, the raffle and sponsorships, Smiley, who oper-ates the Inkster Legends Basketball Camps said. The $10 raffle ticket offers a chance at the first prize of two tickets to see the Jan. 29 Detroit valiers. Second pri in the $10 raffi is four tickets to the Jan. 2 is four tickets to the Jan. 2 Hariem Globetrotters perform-ance at the Palace of Auburn Hills. Third prize is a 24-inch flat screen TV and fourth prize is a case of Choice Thone steaks. The raffle will also award four nner prizes including din

two at They Say dinner for two a Big Bear Lodge and a $30 gift certificate for Red Lobster The winners of the raffle will be announced during the tele-vised regular meeting of the Inkster City Council in Inkster City Council in December, Smiley said. For details about the raffle or to purchase tickets, contact Smiley at (734) 890-2478.

NORTHVILLE – PLYMOUTH

Officer's retirement marked

Lieutenant Kevin "Cal" Lauria cele-brated his retirement with friends and coworkers at a restaurant party last week after 25 years with the Plymouth Her 25 years with the Plymouth lownship Police Department. During his career Lauria served in var-sus capacities in the department, including the rank of detective, field training officer, evidence technician and was a member of the department honor guard. He was promoted to his current rank in

Lauria, 48, started his public safety career in 1990 near his hometown of Grand Rapids with the Walker Police Department and six months later joined Departs the Phymouth Township police force as a awards and accomplishments, Lauria said his father, retired court magistrate Vincent Lauria of the 61st District Court in Grand Rapids, was his inspiration to get into police work. "After school, me and my brothers would go to the courtroom and listen in on informal hearings with my Dad ... I loved it." Lauria said. One of seven children, Lauria i three of his brothers are in law enforce ment. One sister also works in public safe-ty as the head of security for a firm in Alaska.

Plymouth Township Police Chief Tom Tiderington and Township Supervisor

tion and orgititude for his service from citizens and other law enforcement agencies.

Plymouth Community United Way is looking for volunteers to clean yards the event at Plymouth First United Methodist Church for a continental breakfirst and instructions.

Science degree in criminal justice and a minor in communications.

Lauria, a long-time Farmington area resident, said he has plans to work in sales and later move to StCroix.

Shannon Pride horovertile Stannon Pride horo

Northville High School to host open house Oct. 25

Northville High School will Northville High School will host a Community Open House from 1-3 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 25. Visitors can tour the state-of-the-art, technology-equipped high school with student leadrs as guides. Academic department chairs and representa-tives from athletic teams, stutives from athletic teams, stu-dent clubs, and music and art students, administrators and parents will all be on hand for stions and information. Northville Public Schools' commitment to excellence is evident throughout its commehensive programming in aca-demics, the arts, athletics and extra-curricular opportunities, ss, and music and art a spokesperson said s. as well as current Northville Public Schools' stu said.

above state and/or national above state and/or national averages on Michigan Department of Education assessments, ACT and SAT per-formance, and Advanced Placement assessments. The Michigan Class of 2015 alone included 34 National Merit Scholar Competitors, she added... Northville High School, along with the two middle schools, is fully authorized as an fully authorized as an International Baccalaureate World School offering the Middle Years and Diploma Programs. The school district also has h en named to the Annual AP District Honor Roll for the last three years, she said. This Open House is geared add o light chores in Plymouth and addo light chores in Plymouth and anton townships on Saturday, Nov. 14. Volunteers will meet on the day of adult. To volunteer, call Randi Williams

Make A Difference Day Volunteers are needed

Deviations and an appli-Check in time is 8 a.m. Volunteers cation, visit www.plymouthunited are asked to bring rakes, garden tools wayorg and gloves, and h

portation to travel between I at (734) 453-6879, ext. 7 or e-mail randi.williams@pcuv.orgby Nov. 6 For more information and an applitoward incoming freshmen for the 2016-17 academic year, the event is open to families with students of all ages, as well as community members.

Northville High School is located at 45700 Six Mile Road, Northville, Michigan, 48168. For more information, call (248) 344-3800 or visit http://ht

Hit-and-run driver is sought

According to police reports, 10-year-old Zachary Walski was struck by a car as he and a friend were attempting to cross Ann Arbor Road and Shekdon at about 8 pm. Saturday, Oct. 3. The boys were running north across Ann Arbor Road and wearing dark clothing, police said, and the driver of the vehicle which did not stop at the scene may not have known the car struck the child. Witnesses said that the signal light at the intersignal light at the intersection was ; for drivers traveling along Ann / Road at the time the boys were atto ing to run across the street.

The child was transported to Motts Children's Hospital in Ann Arbor from the scene for treatment of head injuries.

Township police have requested assis-tance from the community in locating the vehicle and driver

Anyone who may have information about the vehicle or the crash is asked to call (734) 354-3232.

Arnold

FROM PAGE 1

en, Lee O. Arnold, Javne A. (Rot eminera, Leo O. Armoid, Jigne A. (Robert) Jarvis, J. Bradley (Sherry Cummins) Arnold, Todd B. (Teresa) Arnold, and Beeky K. Krupa; her grandchildren, Any Jones, Amanda Arnold, Ashley Arnold, Mitchell Arnold, Betsy Jarvis, Ben Jarvis, Heather (Andrew) Roman, Ethan Krupa, Emma Krupa, Brett (Rosanna) Cummins, ind Natalie (Juan) Sanchez; her great-

313-292-7722

grandchildren, Juaniteo, Tony, and Angelica Sanchez, Rodrigo and Sofia Flanenco, Mackenzie and Kiley Wethinton, and Breanna Cummins; her Wethinton, and Breanna Cummins; her beother-in-law, Grant Danskine, her sister-in-law, Helen Bradfute and her nicces and nephrox. She was preceded in death by her sister Barbara Danskine, and her brother, Air Force Master Sgt. Michael

Funeral services took place Plymouth Church of Christ in Plymouth. ce at Memorials in Mrs. Arnold's name m be made to First Step of Plymouth, 445 name may suth, 44567 Pinetree Dr Plymouth, MI, 48170

734-242-2992

PLANNING COMMISSION CHARTER TOWNSHIP OF CANTON NUTLY & OF PUBLIC HEARING

CONSIDER REQUEST FOR SPECIAL LAND USE APPROVAL FOR A RELIDENSION SECTION 22 0210' FOR PARCEL NO. 666 99 0002 011 (6900 IEAGGERTY N.)

CHARTER TOWNSHIP OF CANTON NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING CONSIDERATION OF CLASS C LIQUOR LICENSE TO CHIPOTLE MEXICAN GRIEL 42001 FORD ROAD CANTON, MICHIGAN 4007 IEEE/FY GIVEN persuant to Art 55 of the Public Arts of 1999 of the State of Michigan, as amendes or License Ordinance, Chapter 6, Article II of the Charter Township of Caston, that the Board of True ship of Caston will hold a Public Hanring on Toesday, Neurahor HD, 2005, in the Tomohol or at Room, 1150 South Caston Castor Read, Caston, Michigan 45318 or 750 p.m. for the following pary

Bradfute

Donations of wrapped, bagged candy are needed for the Wayne Halloween oers Market.

The candy should be in a shopping bag labeled "Farmers Market" and can be dropped off with Bob Pugh at Jack Demmer Ford, 37300 Michigan Awe, Maria Trinidad at Lobo Tires, 32506 Michigan Awe., John Hale at Bits 'n Pieces, 34629 Michigan Ave., Ken Miller at STEP 35000 Van Born Road or Anna Duba and Maple anor, 3999 Venoy Road. The event is sponsored by the Wayne

amber of Cor

ze is oo

The 10-acre Maybury Farm Corn Maza a now open from 6-10 p.m. Fridays, from oon until 10 p.m. Saturdays and from neon until 7 n.m. on Sundays through Nos The last wagon leaves for the maze one hour prior to close. Group tours and bon-fires for 15 or more are available. To reserve a date, call (248)374(020). Cost to wird the same more ic 67 nor nor visit the corn maze is $7 per person and includes the hayride and admission to Maybury Farm. As always, children 2 and under are free. All proceeds from the maze are used to pay for the winter feed maze are used to pay for the winter feed bills for the farm animals. Maybury Farm, operated by the Northville Community Foundation, a his-toric farm that provides interactive educational opportunities for the public. The farm is located at 50165 Eight Mile Road in Northville. It is 1-1/4 mile west of Beck Road on Eight Mile, 1/2 mile west of Maybury State Park. Enter at the Maybury State Park. Enter at the Maybury Fram sign, do not enter the State Park. Parking is free at Maybury Farm For more information, visit www.northvil LOFE OF WWW face ityfoundati

The Plymouth Community United Way is snonsoring a Hats For The Homeles

h sponsoring a mass ror the nonneases drive through Dec. 18 Donors are asked to drop off new hats, mittens, gloves, scarves, blankets, and socks at Plymouth Community United Way, 960 W. Ann Arbor Trail, Suite 2 during business hours 7:45 a.m until 4:30 Monday - Thursday and from 7:45 a.m. until 2:45 Friday: All adult and children sizes are welcome. For more information, call Williams at (734) 453-6879, ext. 7 or ll Rar mail randi williams@ncvrw.org

Northville Civic Concern help in filling empty shelves. rn is looking for

The food bank does not have en dates and is described as a critical situa-tion. Client numbers are increasing as donations are decreasing for the group which serves more than 180 Northville ol age chil

Residents are asked to bring no expired canned or boxed food to Northville Civic Concern's office at 43251 West Seven Mile Road located in the Highland Lakes Shopping Plaza between 10 a.m. and 1 p.m. Monday, Wednesday or Friday. During other hours, items can be dropped off at Cassel's Restaurant or World Wide Alternations also located in the Highland Lakes Shopping Plaza. Donations are accepted at Genitti's Restaurant, The UPS Store, Great Harvest Bread Company, and Northville City Hall.

There is a special need for fruit, maca ni and cheese, cereal, and canned meat products. For more information call (248 lay or Friday ankets are needed Plymouth Community United Way is ring a Blanket Drive in : community through Jan. 15 the hom 2016 and can be dropped at the Plymouth Community United Way office. The address is 950 W Ann Arbor Trail, Suite 2, Plymouth, MI 48170. For more information call Bandi

For more information, cm. illiams at (734) 453-6879, ext. 7 or 182 mail randi.williams@pcuw.org.

A full day of music and fun is on tap for rea families as the Canton Public Library announces an all-day, all-ages music festi-val on Saturday, Oct. 17.

Families will start the day by moving and grooving to the kindle rock beats of Ms. Carissa at 10 a.m. Award-winning children's entertainer Kevin Devine keens the dren's entertainer Revin Devine keeps the beat going with his own beand of rollick-ing participatory music from 11 am until noon. After a break for lunch and naps, the party fires up again with the Saline Fiddlers Philharmonic, a premier youth troupe of musicians who present a diver-range of music from American folk to ja-to western swing along with spirite to western swing along with spirited vocals and step dancing. The Bright Loritios take over the stage at 3:15 p.m. with a multilingual performance that involves all five senses. The fostival ends with the return of Gustafer Vellowgold, a lly-recogn zed multi-media sh described as equal parts pop rock concert and hand-drawn cartoon movie.

The Family Music Festival is prowith the support of the Friends of the Canton Public Library and is open to the public. Registration is not required. The Canton Public Library is located at 1200 S. Canton Center Road in Canton. For more information about this program, visit *cantonpl.org

Pumpkin Palooza in Plymouth The fifth annual "Pumpkin Palooza," is set for noon to 3 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 18, set for noon to 5 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 16, throughout downtown Plymouth. The event is renown for the costumed families, often including pets, who attend the event. Pets can complete in a cor contest along with the other game entertainment featured at the event.

Visit the Plymouth Communit Chamber of Commerce website (ply mouthmich.org/events/Pumpkin-Palooza_ET359.html) for more details or the Facebook page https://www.facebook.com/PumpkinPaloos

Annie is on stage Everyone's favorite redinead will return to The Willage Theater at Cherry Hill in the Spotlight on Youth Theater production of Annie, Jr. for one weekend only, Oct. 15-17

Annie Jr is a 70-minute version of the popular Broadway musical Annie geared ecifically for a youth cast Tickets are available now onl canton-mi.org/villagetheater or by calling (734) 394-5300. The Village The box office is open for walk-up service weekdays between 10 a.m. - 2 p.m. Tickets can also be purchased one hour prior to curtain at 7 p.m., Thursday and Priday and at both 2 and 7 p.m. Saturday out 1 vany ma at both 2 and 7 p.m. Saturday Oct. 17. For additional information about Spotlight on Youth productions, call (248) 719-3637 or visit spotlightonyouthmi.com or www.facebook.com/SpotlightonYouth. The Village Theater at Cherry Hill is cated at 50400 Cherry Hill Road in Canton

Miler Woods walks set Guided tours of the only nature pre-served in Plymouth Township are being planned by members of the Friends of Miller Woods from 2 through 4 p.m. Oct. 18

Music Man Jr. on stage

outh Arts and Recreation plex (PARC) in Plymouth for two ends, Oct 16-18 and 23-25 and will ar all lors the til Broadway classic and 1962 film adapta tion, The Music Man Jr. follows the fast tion, The Music Man. Ar follows the fact-talking traveling salesman Harold Hill as he const the people of River City, lowa into buying instruments and uni-forms for a boys' band he vows to organize. His plans to skip town with the money are folled when he falls for the town librarian, whose belief in him sugget help him succeed in the end, in spite of himself. "This cheme is a charine and most fire

"This show is a classic and great for the entire family," said Brandon Waldenmayer of Canton who is the Wandenimayer of Canton who is the director and co-producer of the show Waldenmayer is a Plymouth-Canton schools alumnus and is currently a children's theatre student at Eastern Michigan University.

Benjamin Hodge from ( be performing as Harold Hill and Marian is double cast and will be per-formed by two actors, Jane Harju and nd 25. The tours are 1/3 mile in length, cover ie history of the Miller family, and will the history of the Miller family, and will identify different species of trees solden seen in this part of Southeast Michigan Entrance to Miller Woods is on Powell Road, between Beck and Ridge Roads. Tours are free, and last about one hour No dogs or strollers allowed in the wood

Parking is available on Powell Road Visit the website at millerwoods.com for re details Pinterest classes planned Pinterest for Beginners will be the topic at a class planned for 68 p.m. Oct. 19 at the Romulus Public Library.

Students will learn to set up an acc nd navigate the pinboard site. Sign up at the library; 11121 Wa

Road, Romulus or by calling (734) 942-7589 Pet costume contest set

Pets can bring their owners to Kell Park for a Howl-Ween Pet Costu Contest beginning with registration from France I o No.

d are currently on sale. Curta is 7 p.m. Fridays and 2 and 7 p.m. Saturdays and At 2 p.m. Sundays Tickets can be purchased at wwilheartforeveraftercom or be call www.ibeartforeveraftercome or by call-ing (734) 547-5156 The Plymouth Arts and Recreation Complex (PARC) is the repurposed Central Middle School located in Plymouth between down-town and Old Village at 650 Church St.

11:45 am until noon Sunday Oct. 18. The contest is free to enter and judging should be complete by 1 pm when prizes will be presented to the first, second and third place winners. Event bags will be given out to the first 50 participants who register.

place winners. Event bags will be given out to the first DD participants who register. Sponsors and prize donors include: Happy Hounds Dog Du Care, Platinum Pot Service, Plymouth Veterinary Hoopital, Qualityed, Specially Pet Supplies, Inc. Three Dog Bakery and Trust and Obse Passitive Dog Training, LLC: For more information on the Pet Costume Contest either visit www.ci.plymouth.mi.us/recreatio cialevents or call the Recre Department at (734)455-6820.

Stay downtown after the Pet Costume ontest for Pumpkin Palooza. This falloween activity event for kids will be held from noon to 3 p.m. Games and prizes, kid cos lots of entertainment and candy will be part of the fun. For more information on Pumpkin Palooza visit, www.plymouthmichorz

Our House Specialty "Best Whitefish in Lower Michigan"

Planked Lake Superior Whitefish

Lake Superior Whitefish served Charlevoix Style on a seasoned oak plank, surrounded by Duchess Potatoes and fresh vegetables

A truly spectacular presentation $20<sup>20</sup>

500 Forest Ave. · Plymouth

(734) 414-6400