v. 10 - 16, 2016

75¢

THE BELLEVILLE ENTERDRISE + THE CANTON FAGLE + THE INVESTED I FOGED STAD + THE NORTHVILLE FAGLE THE PLYMOUTH EAGLE • THE ROMULUS ROMAN • THE WAYNE EAGLE • THE WESTLAND EAGLE

www.associatednewspapers.net

Prosecutor protests Melendez' parole

ENTERPRISE Vol. 131, No. 45

erotropolis project o cials have one more year to prove the value of the proiect to Van Buren Tow or the municipality will dis-continue the $25,000 annual 80

See page 2.

U.S. Army SSet. Dowey Smith will take the place of the man who saved his life in Vietnam during the annual Canton Township Salute to anton Townsa..., ervice Friday See page 5.

LEDGER STAR Vol. 69, No. 45

Wayne County mmissioner Glenn S County Anderson and State Sen. David Knezek will be hosting a monthly meeting from on until 1 p.m. Nov; 14 in residents, officials in the City of Plymouth are weighing ons regarding plans for a fountain in Kellogg See pape 3.

Two members of the ethville Townshin Police Department have graduated from the Eastern Michigan University Police Staff and and School See page 5.

Roman

Vol. 131. No. 45

After being rained out ice, the Ant al Car Show twice, the Annual Car Snow during the Pumpkin Festival was able to donate proceeds to the Romulus Veterans Outreach Committee See page 3.

mbers of the W City Council rejected an offer of $150,000 for the vacant Wayne Activities and Banquet Center last week See page 4.

The veterans memorials which remain at the former Westland City Hall site will soon be moved to new locations

See page 4.

Former Inkrier Police Former Inkster Police Officer William Melendez could be out of prison before Christmas despite the strong objections of Wayne County Prosecutor Kym Worthy Melendez was sentenced to 13 months to 10 years for the heating of motorist Flow! Dent during a traffic stop in January of 2015. The incident made national headlines when a videotape of Melendez holding Dent, 56, on the ground and beating him with his closed fist. The videotape shows Melendez viciously striking Dent 16 times about the face and head. Dent was treated at a local hospital for his injuries and subsequently came to a $1.37million settlement with the city. Melendez was fired by the kster city manager and the police chief during the incident resigned. Two other Inkster officers shown on th were also suspended for their were and suspender for their part in the incident. A jury found Melendez guilty of two felonies: miscon-duct in office and assault with intent to do great bodily harm. Wayne County Circuit Judge Venda Evans remanded him to jail immediately after the deci-sion was announced Nov. 19, 2015.

15. Melendez, 48. was granted parole at a hearing in October contingent upon his comple-tion of a behavioral therapy tion of a behavioral therapy program. No timetable or schedule for the therapy was available. Worth immediately sent a letter to Michael Eagen, chairman of the Michigan parole board, asking that any such parole be denied. "The Wayne County Prosecutor's Office OPPOSES

(sic) this parole and would ask the board to reconsider its decision," Worthy said in her four-page letter. In the letter, Worthy restates some of the arguments used by the district attorney at Melendez trial.

She referenced the video sale references the vinte-tape which she said shows Melendez "using excessive force to brutalize Mr. Dent" who she added, "was unarmed, never fought back, never struck the defendant and was unsuc-cessful in attempting protect himself from the defendant's unrelenting attack."

She added that Melendez was guilty of an "absolute betrayal of the trust and authority placed in him to pro-authority placed in him to pro-tect the community and uphold the laws of this state." A spokesman from the Department of Corrections said that letters, whether in opposition or support of a parole decision will be take into consideration but are advi sory and do not trigger any action by the parole board

A waiting game

Plymouth Township trustee candidate Jack Dempsey (left) and unopposed can-didate for township didate for township supervisor Kurt Heise, far right, talk with resident Joe DeFranco outside Pioneer Middle School early Tuesday as record School early Tuesday as record numbers turned out to cast their votes. Results of the balot-ing were not avail-able at press time.

Meijer omitted from Northville plan

Planning Commission will Planning Commission will review a new proposal for development of the former Scott Correctional Facility prop-erty at Five Mille and Beck roads when they meet Nov. 21.

An original proposal from Redico, a Southfield-based feveloper, met with strong protests from residents who objected to the inclusion of a bjected to the inclusion of a vertial space was flexible and could be developed to provide TQDO squares 60k bill(set rater vool include la bink druppert, offices spaces on the first floor lamed for the centre of the GS coll set of the space was shown in the set of the set 170,000 square-foot Meijer store planned for the center of the 53-acre development. The new plan for a mixed-use develop-store with 99-130 single-family homes, on 50- by 100-foot lots with access to an adjacent com-munity park. Also included are two clusters of town homes and the large development would Planning Commission disturb the quiet atmosphere of board of trustees on Oct 25 distants the quiet atmospheres of the areas. Reconstructions that the transfer flow and patterns at its register flow and patterns at the proposed at the and questioned the density of the planned aims beckertbed as 6b between foot field and about 2,4200 v 1200. The distant about 2,4200 v 1200. Th two clusters of town homes and truffle flow and patterns at the 100-109 apartments, along with proposed site and questioned about 100,000 square foot of the density of the planned site. Developers said they hoped to replace the planned Maijer Ot replace the planned Maijer of the standard state of the standard with a large market but that the square foot. The tornhouses and be developed to provide the planned state of the standard square foot. The tornhouses and be developed to provide the standard be the standard to provide the standard bestandard to the standard to the standard to the the standard to the standard to the standard to the the standard to the standard to the the standard to the stand now go before the planning commission members for con-sideration, and then, if approved, go before the board of trustees for consideration New 29

Romulus wins ecities economic award

The City of Romulus is one of only six communities across the state to have been recognized for the strategies they employ to foster entrepreneurial growth and economic development, according to the annual eCities study. The study, conducted by Labs University of Michigan Dearborn Center for Innovation Research, identified the City of Farmington Hills, City of Grand Blanc, City of Hillsdale, City of Romulus, City of Sault Ste. Marie and City of Tecumseh for their strategies, innovative pro-grams and best practices geared toward business development. Romulus also was recognized as a five-star community. research in previous years and are proud to be recognized as a five-star community this year," ways to energize public space said Romulus Mayor LeRoy D. while investing in business fin Burcroff. "Our team has worked con-sistently to improve our rela-tionship with local businesses from across the state of and potential developers. We Michigan are cultivating and have utilized the best practices shared with us from the oClties ment. These communities show how local governments can work in distinct and strategic and job development," s Davis, director, iLabs An additional 40 cos aid Tim ties are recognized as five-and four-star performers. Five-star communities have commercial constructions worth over $875 million, having issued over 2000 construction permits They have more than $29 billion in combined real and personal properties. They have more than $21 million in additions to assets in the past year and with about 10 percent of the employed population being sel employed. eCities study sur eing self

See Award, page 3

.,, Our team has worked consistently to improve our relationship with local businesses and potential developers.

Van Buren gives Aerotropolis 1 more year have one more year to prove the value of the project to Van Buren Township or the Downtown Development Authority will discontinue paying the annual dues of $25,000.

PAGE 2

shin has received nothing in Outbo $175,000 e Oct. 25 meeting of the suitant Luke Bonner spoke to members of the authority board regarding the project. Craig Atchinson, chairman of the DDA board of directors, demanded to know what Van The DDA has been paying The DDA has been paying Buren was getting from the acotropils and how the commu-nity has received nothing in responded that there had been oup, Aerotropolis Director of Van Buren Township residents. usiness Development Marco He added that he felt Aerotropolis has "a failure to launch" and was a victim of study after study rather than effective marketing.

study after study rather than effective marketing. The board members along with Bomer and Salomone dis-cussed the project extensively inquiring as to exactly what the marketing plan was going for ward and what part t Aerotroplis project played in recent development in Romul Bonner told the group t

Aerotropolis was a major site. "Everyone calls it the 440," he the weaknesses and strengths of sites in this area. "The assets we have here are on a par with others," Bonner oin a par with others, souther said, adding, "I think we are doing the right things." He men-tioned a new social media effort said, referring to the 440-acre site at the noticing, Huron Township Econse and Belleville roads. He said a recent tour of not paid datas for two years while Aerotroplis had brought in peo-trog yave unabled feedback on ed a $10,000 mivre. Romultus pays the full $25,000. After much more in-depth discussion as to the benefit to the community and anticipated progress by the Aerotropolis representative DDA board members agree pay the dues for another year and then review the progress ne County C S. Anderson and State Sen. David Knezek will be hosting their normally-scheduled monthly coffee hour event in Inkster from noon until 1 p.m. Monday. Nov; 14. The meeting will take place at the Learna Hicks Public Library, locat-ed at 2005 Inkster Road.

Legislators set meeting

commissioner toan. Residents are encouraged to attend Mail: 500 Grisvold St., 7 and discuss issues of importance to Detroit, MI 48226 them. Citizens who have questions or Phone: (313) 2434855 concerns in the meantime are encour. Email: District12@ways officials by mail, telephone, or email: Sen. David Knezek Mail: PO. Box 30036, Lansing, MI 48909 Phone: (855) 347-8005

Email: ------Commissioner Glenn S. Anderson Mail: 500 Griswold St., 7th Floor,

Goodfellows' help available us for holiday help from t wille/Van Buren Goodfellows are available at the Van Buren ship Police Department front desk The forms will also be available ae at the Van Buren Township web-www.vanburen-mi.org and are printable. All applications must be submitted in person before 3 p.m. Dec. 2. Residents of the CHy of Belleville and Van Buren Township are eligible for the program. Sumpter Township residents can apply for help through the ty: Proof of residency, such as sense or state identification

Proof of residency, such as a driver license or state identification card wil be required during in-person applica tions. A current utility bill will also be accepted as proof of residency if it con-tains the name and address of the appli-cant or family. Applications must be submitted in person and no mailed or emailed applications will be accepted

For more information contact Pan ieming at (734) 699-8934 from 9 a.m Fb

Van Buren Township firefighter John Henderson has been awarded the 2015 Firehouse Magazine Michael O. McNamee Award of Vulor: Henderson placed fourth in the national ranking of firefighters honored for displaying great bravery in the face of dangerous conditions. A Van Buren fire-fighter for 15 years, he recently resigned Ignitor for its years, no recently resigned from the department. The August issue of Firehouse Magazine described the brave actions that won Henderson the national honor, noting that the township department was called to a fire in a tri-level home on Dec. 13, 2015. When Henderson and his part-def that a young child was inside the burn-ing home. Henderson went to the front door to find the child who had been spot-ted by police officers who were first on the seeme

Visibility was limited to 12-18 inches need his safety gear, only to realize he from the floor where flames and smoke had enzulfed the structure. Henderson left his helmet on the truck. Without regard for his own safety.

Henderson crawled through the heat, er arrived on the scene, they were flames and smoke in an attempt to find the child As he erawled forward in zen visibility he touched the soft clothing of a toddler. He dragged the child back out the front door with him through the blaze where firefighters began medical proce dures to the unresponsive child. The 2year-old had sustained burns to more than 50 percent of her body and was hospitalized for treatment

After months of treatment, she was released from C.S. Mott Children's Hospital, and continues to recover from the incident

Henderson was officially hone the township for his bravery in the res of the child.

Henderson resigned from the town-ship fire department in response to a new rule that required paid-per-call frefighters to work four duty crew shifts monthly. Henderson's job as an instructor of closed-space rescues requires him to travel and prohibits his guarantee working four shifts, he said. Hender has had some other organizational iss with the department and resigned his rank of lieutenant just prior to the rescue incident

To subscribe to The Eagle call 734-467-1900.

Plymouth - Romulus

City 'weighing options' for Kellogg fountain - ,, dents, members of the Plymouth options regarding plans for a new fountain in Kellogg Park. Tony Bruscato, director of the lopment authority, issued a ment last week thanking residents who norticinated in the change regarding the plans for e park and fountain.

"The DDA and City Commission are currently look-ing at renovations to be a twose project, with Phase 1 to constitute a new fountain in Kellogg Park by summer 2017.

Following comments from res-the DDA and City Commission idents, members of the Pymouth have listende to suggestions, and Downtown Development have asked the fountain designer Authority and the Pymouth City for an alternative to the current Commission are weighing rendering There is sentiment options regarding plans for a from the DDA and City Commission to keep the fountain the foundam for the process the process of the provide the process of the process of the process of the sentences of the process of the process of the process of the sentences of the process of the sentencess of the process of the proces of the process of the process in its current location, and reducing the amount of hard-scape around the fountain," Bruscato said in the prepared

Plans had included moving the fountain about 20 feet a included a fountain whole 20 teet and included a fountain with an LED lighting display with an 18-inch wall along the Main Street side of the park. Those options were criticized by residents attending the public hearings and in email ments to the development authority. Plans also included the closing of Union Street with large planters and including the area in front of the Wilcox h part of the park part of the park. The renderings will be dis cussed at a second workshop on the future design of a new fountain. When those renderings are available, the wor will be annound workshop mes unced, Brus

The renderings will be d at a sar

Phase 2 will be consideratio for upgrades to the remainder of the park at a later date, with input from the community. That will include discussions on elimi will metiide discussions on elimi-nation of trees, walkways and the sitting wall along Main Street At this time, those options are on hold until further discussion. which is expected to begin some-time next year. Again, those con-versations will be announced A look at the progression of the Kellogg Park/fountain project can be found on the Plymouth wntown Develop Authority website at www.down-townplymouth.org [http://www.downtownply-mouthorg] The site includes the Oct. 10 presentation at the Plymouth Cultural Center; which cludes updated renderings of e proposed project. e proposed project. Comments can be emaile the Plymouth Development Downtown th Downte Authority www.dda@ei.plymouth.mi.us ttp://ww a@ci.ph

A special thank you

A spectral transmission of the spectra of the spect

New director named at recreation facility

Gail Grieger has been named as the new executive director of the Plymouth Arts and Recreation Complex (PARC).

Effective Nov 1, Grieger is responsible for directing day-to-day operations of PARC including scheduling, tenant leases, athletic swimming and fitness programs theater and music operations, website and social media sites, sales and marketing programs and facility maintenance. grams and facility maintenance. 'I am privileged to accept the position of executive director at PARC, and to join the talented and diverse group of individ-uals and organizations who are so dedicated to this project. I look forward to the ed 76 communities from 25 counties in Michigan that are home to more than 22 percent of Michigan residents and 28 per-cent with at least a bachelor's degree. These communities count for nearly one fifth of the state's entrepreneurs who earned more than $1.9 billion selfemployed income in total. About 60 per-cent of these communities have a local ess database, more than a quarter provide business improvement grants and more than 40 percent have full-time eco-more than 40 percent new nursans eco-nomic development employees. "For the past decade, eCities research has provided data on the strategies and best practices communities are using to sofully attract and retain business Davis said "Wo or unity to enhance the entire Plymouth community by bringing quality art, theater, music, fitness, and recreation activities to PARC and making it the place where everyone can experience what is truly amazing about Plymouth," Grieger said id. PARC has successfully completed 15 months of operation and can now move to the next phase of the plan to build a per-forming arts center and exhibition hall, and renovate the existing facilities, noted Don Soenen, PARC president and chair trated the f

FROM PAGE 1

search so that communities throughout Michigan can adapt and adopt the to that best align with their commun that best align with their community needs and economic development goals." The communities were honored ntly at UM-Dearb orn. Support for eCities is provided in part by the DTE Energy Foundation, Comcast, Plante Moran and UM-Dearborn College of Rusiness

The annual eCities research project, which began in 2007, uses data supplied by the participants, as well as other public records to assemble a six-factor; 32-item index of entrepreneurial activity, looking at such factors as clustering, incentives, growth, policies, community and educa-tion. The study focuses on entrepreneurshin because of its importance to expan sification of Michig ies and the impact s businesses have on job creation. To date, more than 200 communities across e participated in the stude ommunity for this facility. It's time to stall management to handle continuing operations while we pursue the longer term goals for PARC. Ms. Grieger is highly qualified, passionate about PARC, and ideally suited for this position," Somen

The PARC is a 501(c)3 p leading the effort to convert the histori Central Middle School and the 166 acres on which it stands, into an arts, education and recreation complex serving the greater Plymouth community he added

Winner will win the candy corn AND the jar!

Romulus Public Library 11121 Wayne Rd. Romulus, MI 48174 (734)942 -7589 www..romulus.lib.mi.us ublish: Nevanber 18, 2016 Eagle Newspaper

Council rejects offer for banquet center -,,

Council rejected an offer of $150,000 for the vacant Wayne Activities and Banquet Center last week t week. The offer came from Mark Paladino of Lower Huron Chemical and Supply Co. He pro-posed using the building, located at the corner of Sims and Wayne Road, as a rental venue for events. The property overlooks Goudy Park and is near Wayne City Hall.

y Hall. Paladino also suggested that the building could be used as an vity center: I was in (Las) Vegas last week I thought the city could use a place like this," Paladino told ing their regular meeting last week. "I already registered the name City Center Place on the Internet."

one Millor Ryan Gabriel and Chris Sanders voted against the proposal. The city charter requires a five-vote majority to approve the sale of any city proper four council m rs voted i favor of the sale.

Miller said he was concern with the future plans for the development of a vibrant down town and selt that this was not in line with that vision. Gabriel, too, said that he was not in favor of ing city be forced into bankruptcy selling off assets of the city which all city assets would be ordered too low for the value of the property deficit and is projected to run out. She also noted that discussions of each next y Gabriel p ladino and indicated that he felt the $150,000 offer was too low for the value of the property.

Mayor Susan Rowe reminded the three dissenting council members that should the falter-Gabriel propo . Jed a lease to he felt the $150,000 offer was is facing a $1.7 million budget sold or auctioned by the court were planned with the City of Westland recording were planned with the City of Westland regarding a consolida-tion of the 29th and 18th District Courts which could open the neighboring court property on Sims Street for development. She noted that any such plan was, however, two or three years in the future city is currently paying utility bills and maintenance at the building and a sale would put the property back on the tax rolls. He noted that the city could generate the sale price of $150,000 and another $5,000 in annual taxes while not paying the upkeep at the building

Polodino has purch Paladino nas purchased and renovated other buildings in Wayne, including the building that now houses Michigan Works' and his current building on Treadwell. The city will also been covered by the nurchaser it

Veterans' memorials will be moved by city

The veterans memorials which remain at the former Westland City Hall site will soon he moved to new locations

Central City Parkway: A third, Finance Authority the All Service Memorial will be moved to Central City Park near servicemen has been moved and the Farmers Market Pavilion. reinstalled at the Eova Veterans be moved to new locations. The Oral movements which the Paramers Market Partition. City officials said that the remain on the Ford Road prop-ery where the odd city hall has a professional firm following abid-been demokined, will be moved in the Vertex Memorial Garden of Westland, behind the Downtown Development. arden of westiand, benind the Downtown Development filliam P. Faust Library on Authority and the Tax Increment of Foreign Wars Post. Mayor William Wild said the move was necessary as plans are discussed for the development or use of the now vacant proper-ty along Ford Road. No decision regarding the land has been made, officials said. He said unit currently they cannot be enjoyed or appreciated and the city has "a window of opportunity" to sy move the structures

He added that a walking path is planned leading to the memo-rial garden behind the library as part of the Central City Parkway ng project. Il take a careful look at this and make sure that the memorials are moved in the most careful way. All of the memorials are important to all of Coleman, who has been active in the Westland Veterans Association, said. He added that donations are still being acc ed to help fund the n

Legislator wins 'Brandi' honor with the Brandi Award, a recog-nition of his work in drafting. introducing, and successfully passing animal welfare legisla-tion through this past legislative session

2. Help Wanted Drivers

2002 MEMLONY COLL 12WFT61L32610521 2000 CHEVROLET BLAZER IGNDT13W1Y2154659 P105 CHEVROLET

MALIBU 1G1ZH57BX54219498 *99K PONTIAC

10001 FORD EXPLORED 1/PMYW60E01UC40144 2005 FORD TAURUS 1/PMYW60E01UC40144 2001 DODGE CARA 1840/24431182755

NE2WOPY67480 FORD TAURUS

5396XA29970

ehicles we ulus Police Post ASAP.

Call 734-467-1900 to place your classified ad or email ada@i

1993 LINCOLN

House Democratic Whip and Th is truly an honor to receive manner to further strengthen our State Representative Robert this award," Kosowski said. "If laws protecting both Michigan's State Representative Robert Sosowski (D-Westland) was ree ognized by the State Bar of lichigan Animal Law Section with the Brandi Award, a recognition of his workered on ani-mith the Brandi Award, a recognition of his work in drafting on owner myssif, I understand that people consider their pets to be part of the family. One of my top priorities as a legislator is to continue to work in a hi-partisan en and its com

The Brandi Award is p ed annually. It is named after Brandi, a dog who was the subject of a lawsuit which success-fully attempted to recover dam-ages beyond mere property value years ago

Donald Ganit, treasurer, Animal Law Section, State Bar of Micr left, Bee Friedlander, chair, Awards Committee, Animal Law Se State Bar of Michigan, congratulate State Rep. Robert Kosows bis receipt of the Brandi award fast appr With the holiday shelves at Romulus Helping Hands are all but bare.

Councilman Harry Crout pointed out Monday night that the community food pantry is in need of donations to help needy families throughout the city. "If you look in to your refrigerator and see food, you're blessed," he said. "A lot of people aren't that blessed. They need help

He asked Romulus officials and the community at large to donate to the organization, which is located at 37510 West Huron Dr. The food pantry is open from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays, It serves Romulus residents only who are referred there either by a social worker, teacher minister or other authority figure and has provided that help for decades.

For more information or to donate, cal (734) 941-5323

CANTON - NORTHVILLE

Alternate speaker set for Salute to Service will take the place of the man will take the place of the man highest military decoration by who saved his life in Vietnam President Barack Obama at the during the annual Canton White House. His life-savin during the annual Canton Township Salute to Service set for Nov 11 at the Village Theater at Cherry Hill.

Smith is one of the last eight soldiers of B Company who was rescued via helicopter by U.S. Army Lt. Colonel Charles Kettles on May 15, 1967. Kettles, who was awarded the Medal of Honor for his actions during the Vietnam War, was originally scheduled to speak at the ceremony but was contly taken ill on will include The prewhite House. His life-saving efforts of rescuing soldiers trapped in a river valley in South Vietnam is credited with saving more than 40 soldiers and four of his own crew members. Kettles, a UH-1D Huey helicopter pilot, was serving as a flight command er assigned to the 176th Aviation

Smith will discuss his rec lections of being rescued by Kettles, who was described by President Obama, as "... the rea

Smith is one of the last eight soldiers of B Company who was rescued

via helicopter by U.S. Army Lt. Colonel Charles Kel dren. Entire family trees, made nossible by the actions of this one

The program will also feature usical tributes sung by the Workman Elementary Choir, under the direction of Mrs. Keri I. Mueller and y en will be coll the Michigan Military Moms including individual size or trav-el size: disposable hand and foot warmers; foot and body powder; Q-tips; Beef Jerky; hot chocolate mix: wipes; granola/power bars; and monetary donations to offset

3 sell liquor to decoy

r more information abou free event at The Villag for at Cherry Hill, call (734 Theater at Cherry Hill, call (734 394-5300 or visit www.cantonvil lagetheaterorg.

The public is encouraged to attend this free event, presented by Canton Township. Doors will open at 6 p.m. for the public to enjoy exhibited military me-rabilia displays and a cookie punch pre-show reception, price to the start of the formal stars DE sentation at 7 p.m.

The Village Th eater at Cherry Hill is locate Road in Cant

2 graduate from command school

woshin Phlice Department have gradu. Iownaup Power Department nave gradu-ated from the Eastern Michigan University Police Staff and Command School. The Northville Township Police Department continues to maintain a tradition of academic and leadership excelnce, a spokesman noted. Lieutenant Michael Burrough has been serving the department for 11 years. He was promoted to sergeant in 2014 and licutement in 2016 Burrouch is currently assigned as the partol division command-er. His previous assignments include com-munity policing, evidence technician, and investigations. He earned a bachelor's degree in criminal justice and a master's degree in organizational leadership and administration, both from Concordia University - Ann Arbor munity of Northville Township for 16 rs. He was promoted to sergeant in 2015 and is currently assigned to the with nost outside Wayn Michigan State Police Task Force as well as the Federal DEA Task force. He earned a bachelor's degree from degree from Madonna University

David Ro and is currently orking on a master's degree at Eastern ichigan University. The Eastern Michigan University Staff

Three of eight businesses visited by the Canton Police Department Special Enforcement Unit (SEU) illegally sold alcohol to minors last month. The special unit utilized a volunteer de y minor who attempted to make a uecoy minor who autompted to make a purchase of alcohol at the businesses, according to a prepared statement from the Canton Police Department.

the Canton Police Department. Businesses that sold the alcohol to the minor included the 7-11 at 7171 North Canton Center Road; En-Joy Liquor at 39457 Joy Road and the Canton Party Store, 44431 Michigan Ave.

Smoker's Express 45156 Ford Road did not sell alcohol to the minor decoy; nor did DEV 6624 N. Canton Center Road; Crown Liquor 42432 Ford Road; CVS 45300 Cherry Hill Road and Oakview Party Store 42256 Palmer Road.

The Canton Special Enforcer ent Unit pliance checks at local businesses in the past, and will continue to use the decoy program as a means of keeping minors safe in the community according to the nt. The unit utilizes a"zes statement. The tilt utilities a zero toler-ance" enforcement strategy when dealing with violations of alcohol and tobacce sales. Under local ordinance, alcohol sales to under age persons as the result of an undercover operation result in a civil infraction ticket being issued to the ser or salesperson with a fine of not more than $100. The establishment is cited for a Liouor Control Commission (LCC) viola tion, resulting in an administrative hear-ing with the LCC. Sales of tobacco prod-ucts to persons under age 18 result in a nisdemeanor ticket being issued to the alesperson with a fine of up to $50, the ant concluded

Check us out online at

ww.station885.com 734.459.0885 | 885 Starkweather | Plymouth, MI 48170

Nor n

PAGE 5

Congregation meets Sunday Redeemer Lutheran Church offe orship services at 11 a.m. Sunday at Tyler Elementary School, 42200 Tyler Koad in Belleville. For more information call (734)740-4230 or access www.redeemerlutheranchurch.

ndy Com Contest continues Those 18 and younger have until Nov 30 to guess how many candy corn pieces are in the jar at the Romulus Public Library

There will be only one winner who will take home the jar and the candy by guessing closest to the exact number of candies in the container. If more than one entry has the correct number, library staff memhers will randomly select a winner from tose entries. The winner will be contacted the first week of December and will have one week to collect the prize. The Romulus Public Library is located at 11121 Wayne Road in Romula tion, call (734) 942

For more informa

ce workshops offe

A free award-winning workshop designed to manage falls and increase activity levels for seniors will be offered from 11 a.m. until 1 p.m. on Mondays and esdays through Dec. 5. There will be ss on Nov. 23.

In class of iNOC 25. The classes are beneficial for those con-cerned about falls, interested in improving balance, flexibility and strength. The Matter of Balance workshop is also benefi-cial for individuals who have fallen in the past and who restricts their activities ecause of falling concerns. Participants must pre-register by call-g the Wayne Senior Services office (734) 721-7460 and leaving a message. Class size is limited

All sessions take place at the HVPE on Center, 4635 Howe Road in offee with Commissioners served Coffee with the Commissioners will ske place from 7:30-8:30 a.m. tomorrow, Nov 11 at the Coffee Bean on Penniman. Three Plymouth City Commissioners ill be on hand to talk with residents in an nformal atmosphere. This will be an opportunity for residents to talk briefly bout issues with a few members of the y commission. The Coffee Bean is located at 884

Family Story Time continues Family Story Time continues at the Romulus Public Library at 6:30 p.m. on Taesdays through Nov. 29.

STEAM (Science, Technology TEAM (Science, recnnorogy agineering, Art and Math) depending on the weekly theme. The Library is located at 11121 Ways Road.

Formore information, call (734) 942-7589 or access www.romlus.lib.mi.us rson of the Year sought The Romulus Chamber of C new accenting nominations for the 2017

Romulus Person of the Year. Completed forms, available at the chamber website, must be returned to the chamber office by 4 p.m. Dec. 16. The office is located at 11189 Shook Road. St 200, Romulus, Mi 48174. ill not be a Later nor

A committee will review the nomina-ons and make the selection of the win This is the 32nd year for the award in the city More information is available at (734)

283-0694 or admingrounluschamberorg Veterans invited to free movie State Senator Hoon-Yung Hopgood (D-Taylor) will host his 2nd Annual Free

Network of the second s In cooperation with MIP Worth

In cooperation with MJR Westland Grand Cinema 16 and John Glenn High School Junior Reserve Officers Training Corps (JROTC), the third movie in the Da Vinci Code series Inferno" (PG-12) will be shown at the MJR Westland Grand Cinema 16 located at 6800 North Wayne Road in Westland. Tickets are limited to two per veteran and are available on a first come, first served basis. Registration is required

Hopgood represents the 6th Senate District, which includes Belleville. Brownshown Township, Flat Rock, Huron Township, Rockwood, Romulus, Sumpter Township, Taylor, Van Buren Township,

al inform For additional information or to regis-ter for free tickets, contact Hopgood's office at (517) 373-7800 or by emailing opgoodie SonHH

e lichting plan

Could the grang parents The seventh annual Main Street sulevard Tree Lighting and Salvation my Red Kettle Kick Off in downtown Ro Plymouth is planned for Friday, Nov. 11 During the event, the decorated trees on levard are illuminated and the the boulevard are inuminated and the Plymouth Salvation Army partners begin the Red Kettle drive. Non-perishable food for the Salvation Army pantry is also col-lected and a small gift is presented to the first 100 people who attend the event. Gift certificates are being sought for the event from local businesses. For more information, contact Tony Bruscato, direcof the the Plymouth Downto ent Authority, (734) 455-1453 st to veterans set Romulus VFW Post 9568, located at 39270 W Huron River Dr., is hosting veter-ans, their families and any members of the public to the post for a Veterans Day toast and corremony at 11 a m. Nov. 11

Early arrival is suggested. re information, call (734) 941-

Coffee I

State Sen. Hoon-Yung Hopgood has set his November Coffee Hour for 3 p.m. Nev 11 at Romulus House, 9110 Wayne Road Romulus MI48174

For additional information regard the meeting, contact Hopgood's office by calling (517) 373-7800, by emailing SenHHopgood@senate.mi.gov or visiting his Facebook page whook.com/SenHopgood.

is served The Wayne Public Library is host Afternoon Tea at 1 p.m. Nov 12 A wide sampling of teas, s desserts and tea sandwiches Victoria's Tea Salon will be served.

Tickets, priced at $35, are on sale now at the Wayne Public Library. The cost is $35 per individual or celebrate as a group with a table of eight for $240. All proceeds go to benefit the Friends of the Wayne Public Library: Tickets can be purchased at the Circulation Desk. The Wayne Library is located at 3737

uth Wayne Road in Wayne

Potters host annual sale Members of the Village Potters Guild will host their annual Holiday Sale begin will host their annual Holiday Sale bagin-ning with a reception from 5-8 p.m. Thursday, Nov 17. Functional and decorative pottery cre-ated by members of the guild will be avail-able at this covent. Wheel-thrown and hand-built items include mags, tiles, plates, howk, vases, joweky; holiday orm-ments, and large platters in a vide range ments, and large platters in a wide range of affordable precises. The sale continues from 11 a.m. until 7 p.m. Fridgi, Nov. 18 and from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m. Sahurday, Nov. 19. The studio is locat-ed at 236 N. Main S. in Pymouth behind the American Community Building. For more information or directions to the studio, visit illacenetterscuild ore or call (734) 207.9207

Library sells used books Friends of the William P Faust Library in Westland are planning the Winter Used Rook Sale

The event will begin with a preview sale for members of the Friends of the Library from 3-6 p.m. Nov. 17. The public sale will take place from 16 a.m. until 4 p.m. Nov 18 and 19. Sundi Nov 20 will be bag day when an entire b ofbooks, CDs, DVDs will be priced at $4. v has

The library is located at 6123 Central City Pkoy Westland. For more information, call (734) 325-

Hats For Homeless continues Plymouth Community United Way (PCUW) is looking for community mem-bers to donate new, warm winter items for our Hats for the Homeless drive wi will continue through the month of Donors are asked to drop off new hats, mittens, gloves, scarves, blankets, and mittens, goves, scarves, hankets, and socks at Plynomth Community United Way. 980 W Ann Arbor Trail, Suite 2, Plynomth, during business hours 7:45 an. unitil 420 p.m. Monday - Thursday and from 7:45 a.m. unitil 2:45 p.m. on Priday (745:345). All adult and children sizes are welcome. Plymouth Yoga Room (474 Forest, Plymouth Wild Joc Do collocation from Plymouth.) will also be collecting from Thursday, Nov. 24 through the end of December

For more information, call Ran Williams at (734) 453-6579, ext. 7 or mail randi.williams@pcuw.org.

Celebrate the Season * * * With Us * Book your holiday party

now in our

Winter Wonderland

Private room available with seating for up to 30

HOURS: Mon.-Tues.-Weds. 11-9 Thur. 11-10 • Fri.& Sat. 11-11 • Sun. 12-8